

Chapter 12:05PREVIOUS CHAPTER*POSTAL AND TELECOMMUNICATIONS ACT

Acts 4/2000, 3/2001, 22/2001, 14/2002.

DATES OF COMMENCEMENT

Parts I to V and Part XIII commenced on 1st September, 2000.

Remaining Parts to commence on 1st January, 2001.

ARRANGEMENT OF SECTIONSPART I*PRELIMINARY*Section

1. Short title and date of commencement.
2. Interpretation.

PART IIESTABLISHMENT, FUNCTIONS AND POWERS OF POSTAL AND TELECOMMUNICATIONS AUTHORITY

3. Establishment of Postal and Telecommunications Authority.
4. Functions and powers of Authority.

PART IIIPOSTAL AND TELECOMMUNICATIONS AUTHORITY BOARD

5. Establishment of Postal and Telecommunications Authority Board.
6. Constitution of Board.
7. Terms of office and conditions of service of members.
8. Disqualifications for appointment as member.
9. Vacation of office by member.
10. Dismissal or suspension of members.
11. Filling of vacancies on Board.
12. Chairman and vice-chairman of Board.
13. Meetings and procedure of Board.
14. Committees of Board.
15. Remuneration and expenses of members of Board and members of committees.
16. Members of Board and committees to disclose certain connections and interests.
17. Validity of decisions and acts of Board.
18. Minutes of proceedings of Board and committees.

PART IVFINANCIAL PROVISIONS

19. Funds of Authority.
20. Surplus funds of Authority to be appropriated to Universal Service Fund.
21. Financial year of Authority.
22. Accounts of Authority.
23. Audit of Authority's accounts.
24. Powers of auditors.

PART VMISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS RELATING TO AUTHORITY

25. Minister may give policy directions.
26. Minister may direct Board to reverse, suspend or rescind its decisions or actions.
27. Execution of contracts and instruments by Authority.
28. Reports of Authority.

29. Director-General and other employees of Authority.
30. Exemption from liability for Authority.

PART VI LICENCES

31. Cellular telecommunication licence.
32. Postal licence.
33. Radio station licence.
34. Telecommunication licence.
35. Private telecommunication licence.
36. Persons disqualified to be licensed.
37. Application for and issue and publication or refusal of licence.
38. Terms and conditions of licence.
39. Form and period of validity of licence.
40. Register of licences.
41. Renewal of licence and annual licence fees.
42. Amendment of licence.
43. Suspension, cancellation and enforcement of licences.
44. Powers of Authority in connection with radio station licences.
45. Licensee to inform Authority of changes.
46. Transfer of licences prohibited.
47. Frequency bids.

PART VII POSTAL SERVICES

48. Postal licensees to comply with licence and regulations.
49. Money orders and postal orders.
50. Delivery of postal articles.
51. Posting boxes.
52. Provision of postage stamps.
53. Official marks to be prima facie evidence of certain facts denoted.
54. Recovery of postage and other sums due in respect of postal services.
55. Undeliverable postal articles.
56. Restriction on opening of postal articles.
57. Detention and examination of postal articles.
58. Exclusion of liability of postal licensees.

PART VIII TELECOMMUNICATION SERVICES AND SYSTEMS

59. Interpretation in Part VIII.
60. Telecommunication licensees to comply with licence and regulations.
61. Interconnection between telecommunication licensees.
62. Approval of telecommunication apparatus.
63. Special provisions relating to telecommunication licensees operating telecommunication systems.
64. Use of certain conduits for telecommunication purposes.
65. Notice of construction of railways and electricity works and control of other works.

PART IX RADIOCOMMUNICATION SERVICES

66. Provision of facilities for radiocommunication.
67. Authority to approve sites of radio transmitting stations, allocate frequencies, etc.
68. Approval of Authority required for establishment and working of radio transmitting stations, etc.
69. Disposal of certain radio transmitting stations or radio apparatus to be authorised.
70. Certain dealers and repairers to be authorised.

71. Certificates of competency required in respect of the working of certain radio stations.

PART X

UNIVERSAL SERVICE FUND

72. Designation of District Development Fund and rural district councils as road authorities in respect of certain roads.

73. Establishment and vesting of Universal Service Fund.

74. Objects of Fund.

75. Moneys of Fund.

76. Contributions to Fund.

77. Holding of Fund.

78. Financial year of Fund.

79. Accounts and audit of Fund.

PART XI

OFFENCES

80. Forgery of stamps and money orders, etc.

81. Offences in relation to postage stamps and post marks.

82. Offences in relation to mails or postal articles.

83. Theft of and tampering with mail.

84. Restricted and prohibited postal articles and transmission or use of dangerous substances.

85. Offence of unauthorised notice as to reception of letters, etc.

86. Trespass in or upon post offices or telephone exchanges.

87. False entries relating to mail and fraudulent use of official mark.

88. Offensive or false telephone messages.

89. Wilful damage to or interference with telecommunication lines.

90. False declarations.

91. Offences by employees and other persons.

92. Sufficiency of allegations in indictment.

93. Authority required for institution of certain criminal proceedings.

PART XII

GENERAL

94. Emergency and universal service obligations of certain licensees.

95. Inspections.

96. Appeals.

97. Evidence in proceedings for recovery of fees due.

98. Interception of communications.

99. Regulatory powers of Minister

100. Approval of tariffs by Authority.

101. Recovery of fees and contributions.

102. Proceedings on failure of Authority to comply with Act or direction.

103. Directions to licensees in the interests of national security.

104. Disclosure of confidential information and use of information acquired by inspectors, etc., for personal gain.

PART XIII

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS, AMENDMENTS, REPEALS AND SAVINGS

105. Interpretation in Part XIII.

106. Formation of successor companies and exclusive reservation of certain postal and telecommunication services to the Corporation and the appropriate successor company.

107. Initial shareholding in successor company.

108. Transfer of assets and liabilities of Corporation to successor company.

109. Issue of securities in consideration for transfer of assets.

110. Conversion of loans transferred to successor company.

111. Transfer of employees to successor company and Authority and conditions of service of transferred employees.

112. Minister may give directions to Corporation.
113. Successor company deemed to be licensed.
114. Amendment of Cap. 12:01.
115. Repeal of Cap. 12:02, 12:03 and 12:04.
116. Savings and transitional provisions.

FIRST SCHEDULE: Classification of radio stations.

SECOND SCHEDULE: Ancillary powers of Authority.

THIRD SCHEDULE: Rights, powers and duties of telecommunication licensees operating telecommunication systems.

ACT

To provide for the establishment of the Postal and Telecommunications Authority and to provide for its functions and management; to provide for the licensing and regulation of cellular telecommunication, postal and telecommunication services; to amend the Broadcasting Act [Chapter 12:01]; to provide for the repeal of the Postal and Telecommunication Services Act [Chapter 12:02], the Posts and Telecommunications Corporation Act [Chapter 12:03] and the Radiocommunication Services Act [Chapter 12:04]; and to provide for matters incidental to or connected with the foregoing.

ENACTED by the President and Parliament of Zimbabwe.

PART I

PRELIMINARY

1 Short title and date of commencement

(1) This Act may be cited as the Postal and Telecommunications Act [Chapter 12:05].

(2) This Act shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the President by statutory instrument:

Provided that the President may fix different dates of commencement for different provisions of this Act.

2 Interpretation

(1) In this Act—

“agency service” means a service referred to in paragraph (c) of subsection (2) of section one hundred and six;

“aircraft station” bears the meaning assigned to that term in the First Schedule;

“apparatus”, in relation to cellular telecommunication or telecommunication apparatus, means apparatus constructed or adapted for use in transmitting or receiving a cellular telecommunication or telecommunication service;

“Authority” means the Postal and Telecommunications Regulatory Authority of Zimbabwe established by section three;

[amended by the General Laws Amendment (No.2) Act 2002 promulgated on the 24th January, 2003 - with retrospective effect, in terms of clause 47- from the 4th February, 2002 - Editor.]

“authorised dealer” means a person authorised in terms of paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section seventy to carry on the business of dealing in radio transmitting stations or radio apparatus necessary for the proper working of such stations;

“authorised repairer” means a person authorised in terms of paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section seventy to carry on the business of repairing radio transmitting stations;

“Board” means the Postal and Telecommunications Regulatory Authority of Zimbabwe Board referred to in section five;

[amended by the General Laws Amendment (No.2) Act 2002 promulgated on the 24th January, 2003 - with retrospective effect, in terms of clause 47 - from the 4th February, 2002 - Editor.]

“Broadcasting Corporation” means the Zimbabwe Broadcasting Corporation referred to in section 3 of the Broadcasting Act [Chapter 12:01];

“broadcasting service” means a service comprising programmes for reception by members of the general public and transmitted by a broadcasting or telecommunication system;

“broadcasting station” means a radio transmitting station used for the purposes of carrying on a broadcasting service;

“cellular telecommunication licence” means a licence that authorises the licensee to provide a cellular telecommunication service or operate a cellular telecommunication system;

“cellular telecommunication service” means a service transmitted by means of a cellular telecommunication system;

“cellular telecommunication system” means a radiocommunication service designed to use a limited radio frequency spectrum between cellular handsets or other terminal equipment and network transceivers for the provision of mobile, bearer and supplementary services across the cellular network, by allocating a limited number of frequencies within each of a number of defined geographical areas or cells, allowing the re-use of the same frequencies, and enabling users to maintain connections whilst moving through different geographical areas by making use of call handover between adjacent cells;

“commercial courier service” means a service for the conveyance for reward of postal articles in respect of which any undertaking is given to deliver the article to a specified destination within a specified time;

“communication” means writing, signs, signals, pictures, impulses, sounds and data of any description whatsoever transmitted, tendered for transmission or received by means of a radiocommunication service or a telecommunication system;

“community centre” bears the meaning assigned to that term by section seventy-two;

“community service telephone” bears the meaning assigned to that term by section ninety-four;

“Constitution of the Universal Postal Union” means the Constitution of the Universal Postal Union signed at Vienna on the 10th July, 1964, and the Regulations annexed thereto, or any amendment or replacement of that Constitution or regulations to which Zimbabwe is a party;

“Corporation” means the Posts and Telecommunications Corporation referred to in section 3 of the Posts and Telecommunications Corporation Act [Chapter 12:02] repealed by section one hundred and fifteen;

“dealer” includes—

(a) a person who carries on a trade, business or industry in which radio transmitting stations or their component parts are assembled, manufactured, imported, bought, sold, hired or exchanged or offered or exposed for sale, hire or exchange; and

(b) an auctioneer of radio transmitting stations; and

(c) the employee or agent of a person referred to in paragraph (a) or (b);

“diffusion service” means the dissemination—

(a) by means of any conducting medium of the whole or any part of writing, signs, signals, pictures, impulses or sounds broadcast by a broadcasting service; or

(b) of music, speech, pictures or other data for information, education or entertainment purposes by means of any conducting medium connected to two or more items of apparatus specifically designed for the reproduction of sound, pictures or data; or

(c) of teletext and vertical blanking intervals;

“Director-General” means the Director-General of the Authority appointed in terms of section twenty-nine;

“disabled person” bears the meaning assigned to that term by section seventy-two;

“distress call, message or signal” means a communication concerning safety of life on the land, at sea or in the air;

“electronic mail service” means a service for the distribution of messages by electronic means;

“fixed date”, in relation to any provision of this Act, means the date fixed in terms of subsection (2) of section one as the date of commencement of that provision;

“fixed-line telephone service” means a telephone service transmitted by telecommunication lines;

“generating apparatus” means any apparatus—

(a) generating or designed to generate; or

(b) liable to generate fortuitously;

Hertzian waves, which is prescribed to be generating apparatus for the purposes of this Act;

“harmful interference” means radiation, induction, conduction or other electromagnetic effect which prevents the proper functioning of or obstructs or repeatedly interrupts—

(a) a radiocommunication service carried on in accordance with this Act or the International Telecommunication Convention; or

(b) a telephone or telegraph service carried on in terms of this Act;

“Hertzian waves” means electromagnetic waves of frequencies between ten kilohertz and four hundred gigahertz propagated in space without artificial guide;

“implementation plan” means a plan referred to in section seventy-four;

“inspector” means a person appointed in terms of subsection (1) of section ninety-five to be an inspector for the purposes of this Act;

“International Telecommunication Constitution” means the International Telecommunication Constitution and Convention of the International Telecommunications Union signed in Geneva on the 22nd December, 1992, and the Regulations annexed thereto, or any other international telecommunication convention or agreement to which Zimbabwe may be a party and any regulations annexed thereto;

“international transit service” means a telecommunication service consisting in the conveyance of sounds, visual images or signals which have been conveyed from, or are to be conveyed to, places outside Zimbabwe;

“Internet service” means a telecommunication service consisting in the transmission by means of satellite, telecommunication lines or electricity transmission lines of sounds, visual images or signals between computer terminals located within and outside Zimbabwe;

“letter” includes a letter packet, postcard, aerogram or telegram conveyed by post;

“licence” means a cellular telecommunication licence, a postal licence, a radio station licence, a telecommunication licence or a private telecommunication licence, as the case may be, issued in terms of section thirty-seven;

“licensee” means a person who holds a valid licence^{3/4}

(a) issued to him in terms of section thirty-seven; or

(b) transferred to him with the approval of the Authority; and any reference to a cellular telecommunication licensee, a postal licensee, a radio station licensee, a telecommunication licensee or a private telecommunication licensee shall be construed accordingly;

“mail” means any article which is deposited in a post box for collection and conveyance by post or which is being conveyed by post;

“mail bag” means any bag, box, basket, parcel, hamper or other container or covering in which a postal article is conveyed, whether it does or does not contain a postal article;

“member” means a member of the Board;

“Minister” means the Minister of Information, Posts and Telecommunications or any other Minister to whom the President may, from time to time, assign the administration of this Act;

“mobile station” bears the meaning assigned to that term in the First Schedule;

“money order” means an order for the payment of money remitted at the expense of the person making the order through and on the credit of a postal licensee;

“operate”, in relation to a, cellular telecommunication or telecommunication system, means to install, work, maintain, develop or hire the cellular telecommunication or telecommunication apparatus comprising the system concerned;

“person in charge”, in relation to—

(a) a vessel, means any person, other than a pilot, having command or charge of the vessel;

(b) an aircraft, means any person in command or in charge of the aircraft;

“philatelic archival materials” bears the meaning assigned to that term by section fifty-two;

“postage” means the duty payable for the transmission of articles by post;

“postage stamp” means any piece of paper or other substance or material whatsoever having thereon the stamp, mark or impression of any die, plate or other instrument made or used by a postal licensee for the purpose of denoting any postage;

“postal article” includes any letter, postcard, printed paper, small packet, newspaper, literature for the blind, parcel or other article whatsoever in the course of transmission by post;

“postal licence” means a licence that authorises the licensee to operate a postal service;

“postal order” means a money order in a form provided by a postal licensee on which a fixed amount for remittal is denominated;

“postal service” means a service comprising—

(a) the conveyance for reward of postal articles from one place to another, whether by land, sea or air; and

(b) the performance of all services incidental to the receiving, collecting, sending, despatching and delivering of postal articles; and

(c) the issuance of money orders and postal orders; and includes a commercial courier service, but does not include^{3/4}

(i) the provision of postage stamps, unless expressly authorised by the terms of a postal licence; or

(ii) the provision of an electronic mail service, except in accordance with a telecommunication licence;

“post box” means any letter box, mail box or other receptacle for the reception of postal articles for transmission by post;

“post office” includes—

(a) any house, building, room, place or structure or any vehicle used for the handling or transmission of postal articles or telegrams; and

(b) any post box;

“prescribe” means prescribe by regulations made in terms of section ninety-nine;

“private automatic branch exchange” means an automatic telephone system connected to a telephone exchange by one or more exchange lines, which system serves the person to whom such exchange line or lines are so supplied;

“private telecommunication licence” means a licence that authorises the licensee to provide or operate a private telecommunication service or system;

“private telecommunication service or system” means^{3/4}

(a) a telecommunication service which is not offered to or provided for members of the public; or

(b) a telecommunication system which is contained within and serves a single building and is not connected with a telecommunication system established, maintained or worked by a telecommunication licensee;

“radio apparatus” includes any apparatus, equipment, instrument, pole, mast, standard, wire, cable, thing or means whatsoever which is or may be used in connection with, or for the purpose of, conveying electromagnetic energy to or from a radio station;

“radio receiving station” means apparatus referred to in paragraph (b) of the definition of “radio station”;

“radio station” means—

(a) apparatus, other than generating apparatus, capable of being used for the transmission or emission of writing, signs, signals, pictures, impulses and sounds of all descriptions whatsoever wholly or partly by means of Hertzian waves; or

(b) apparatus capable of being used for the reception of writing, signs, signals, pictures, impulses and sounds of all descriptions whatsoever wholly or partly by means of Hertzian waves; or

(c) apparatus referred to in paragraph (a) of this definition and apparatus referred to in paragraph (b) of this definition in combination;

“radio station licence” means a licence authorising the licensee to possess, control or work a radio station;

“radio transmitting station” means apparatus referred to in paragraph (a) of the definition of “radio station”, whether in combination with apparatus referred to in paragraph (b) of that definition or otherwise;

“radiocommunication service” means a telecommunication service or system whereby writing, signs, signals, pictures, impulses and sounds of all descriptions whatsoever are transmitted, emitted or received wholly or partly by means of Hertzian waves;

“reserved”, in relation to an agency, postal or telecommunication service, means an agency, postal or telecommunication service the provision of which is reserved or deemed to be reserved exclusively to the Corporation or a successor company in terms of subsection (2) or (4) of section one hundred and six;

“satellite telephone service” means a telephone service transmitted by satellite;

“sender” means the person from whom any parcel, article or telegram purports to have come, unless that person proves that he is not the sender thereof;

“ship station” bears the meaning assigned to that term in the First Schedule;

“State land” means land vested in the President, other than Communal Land;

“statutory body” means —

(a) any commission established by the Constitution; or

(b) any body corporate established directly by or under an Act for special purposes specified in that Act, the membership of which consists wholly or mainly of persons appointed by the President, a Vice-President, a Minister or any statutory body or by a commission established by the Constitution;

“successor company” means any successor company formed in terms of section one hundred and six or any subsidiary of a successor company;

“tariff” means a tariff of prices, rates, subscriptions or charges levied by a licensee other than a private telecommunications licensee, and includes any item of such tariff;

“telecommunication authority” means—

(a) in the case of Zimbabwe, the Authority;

(b) in the case of any country or territory other than Zimbabwe, the duly constituted telecommunication authority of that country or territory;

“telecommunication licence” means a licence authorising the licensee to provide a telecommunication service or operate a telecommunication system, other than a private telecommunication service or system;

“telecommunication line” includes any apparatus, instrument, pole, mast, standard, wire, pipe, fibre, tunnel, pneumatic or other tube, thing or means whatever that is or may be used in connection with or for the purpose of sending, transmitting, conveying or receiving signs, signals, sounds, pictures or communications which are conveyed by means of a telecommunication system;

“telecommunications” and “telecommunication services or systems” include cellular telecommunications and cellular telecommunication services or systems;

“telecommunication service” means any telecommunication service transmitted by means of a telecommunication system;

“telecommunication system” means any system by means of which signs, signals, sounds, pictures or communications are conveyed by the agency of electricity, magnetism or electromagnetism or by any agency of a like nature, whether with or without the aid of wires, and includes telephony and telegraphy and any improvements and developments thereof;

“telegram” means any communication transmitted or intended to be transmitted by a telegraph service or delivered or intended to be delivered from any post office or telegraph office as a communication transmitted either wholly or partly by a telegraph service, and includes a communication transmitted or intended to be transmitted by means of a radiocommunication service that is reduced to writing;

“telegraph employee” means any person employed by a telecommunication licensee to accept, transmit or deliver telegrams;

“telegraph office” means any place used for the handling of telegrams;

“telegraph service” means a telecommunication service by means of which a person using the service may communicate by means of a telegram with another person;

“telephone service” means a telecommunication service by means of which a person using the service may speak to another person using the service;

“telex service” means a telecommunication service by means of which a person using the service may communicate by means of printed letters and figures through the medium of a teleprinter with another person using the service;

“transmission”, in relation to—

(a) a telegram, includes the reception as well as the sending thereof;

(b) a postal article, includes the depositing by the sender of the article in a post box;

“under-serviced area” bears the meaning assigned to that term by section seventy-two.

(2) For the purposes of this Act—

(a) a postal article shall be deemed to be in course of transmission by post from the time of its delivery to a post office and until it is delivered to the person to whom it is addressed or returned to the sender or otherwise disposed of under this Act;

(b) the placing of an article in any post box or the delivery of an article to an employee of a postal licensee in the course of his duties shall be deemed to be delivery to a post office;

(c) the delivery of a postal article in terms of this Act shall be deemed to be delivery to the person to whom the postal article is addressed;

(d) in the case of a building which consists of a number of self-contained residences commonly known as flats, each such flat shall be regarded as a single building.

(3) Any reference in this Act to^{3/4}

(a) the provision, reception or transmission of a cellular telecommunication or telecommunication service includes the provision or reception within or transmission to Zimbabwe of any such service transmitted by satellite;

(b) the operation in Zimbabwe of a cellular telecommunication or telecommunication system includes the operation in Zimbabwe of cellular telecommunication or telecommunication apparatus that is connected to a cellular telecommunication or telecommunication system operated outside Zimbabwe.

PART II

ESTABLISHMENT, FUNCTIONS AND POWERS OF POSTAL AND TELECOMMUNICATIONS AUTHORITY

3 Establishment of Postal and Telecommunications Authority

There is hereby established an authority, to be known as the Postal and Telecommunications Regulatory Authority of Zimbabwe, which shall be a body corporate capable of suing and being sued in its corporate name and, subject to this Act, of performing all acts that bodies corporate may by law perform.

[amended by the General Laws Amendment (No.2) Act 2002 promulgated on the 24th January, 2003 - with retrospective effect, in terms of clause 47 - from the 4th February, 2002 - Editor.]

4 Functions and powers of Authority

(1) Subject to this Act, the functions of the Authority shall be—

(a) to ensure the provision of sufficient domestic and international telecommunication and postal services throughout Zimbabwe on such terms and conditions as the Authority may fix;

(b) without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (a), to ensure that any person by whom any telecommunication or postal service falls to be provided is able to provide those services at rates consistent with the provision of an efficient and continuous service and the necessity of maintaining independent financial viability;

(c) to promote the development of postal and telecommunication systems and services in accordance with practicable recognised international standards and public demand;

(d) to exercise licensing and regulatory functions in respect of postal and telecommunication systems and services in Zimbabwe, including the establishment of standards and codes relating to equipment attached to telecommunication systems;

(e) to exercise licensing and regulatory functions in respect of the allocation and use of satellite orbits and the radio frequency spectrum in Zimbabwe for all purposes, including the establishment of standards and codes relating to any matter in connection therewith;

(f) to secure that reasonable demands for postal and telecommunication services are satisfied;

(g) to promote the interests of consumers, purchasers and other users, in respect of the quality and variety of postal and telecommunication services provided and telecommunication apparatus supplied;

(h) to maintain and promote effective competition between persons engaged in the provision of postal and telecommunication services and any activities connected therewith;

(i) to monitor tariffs charged by cellular telecommunication, postal and telecommunication licensees with a view to eliminating unfair business practices among such licensees;

(j) to promote and encourage the expansion of postal and telecommunication services;

(k) to further the advancement of technology relating to postal and telecommunication systems and services;

(l) to represent Zimbabwe internationally in matters relating to postal and telecommunication services;

(m) to establish, approve or control a national telephone numbering plan for the purpose of ensuring that telephone numbers are allocated in an efficient and non-discriminatory manner;

(n) to promote and control the provision of international transit services by persons providing telecommunication services in Zimbabwe;

(o) to advise the Minister on all matters relating to postal and telecommunication systems and services.

(2) Subject to this Act, for the better exercise of its functions the Authority shall have power to do or cause to be done, either by itself or through its agents, all or any of the things specified in the Second Schedule, either absolutely or conditionally and either solely or jointly with others.

(3) Subject to this Act, the Authority shall not, in the lawful exercise of its functions under this Act, be subject to the direction or control of any person or authority.

PART III

POSTAL AND TELECOMMUNICATIONS AUTHORITY BOARD

5 Establishment of Postal and Telecommunications Authority Board

The operations of the Authority shall, subject to this Act, be controlled and managed by a board to be known as the Postal and Telecommunications Regulatory Authority of Zimbabwe Board.

[amended by the General Laws Amendment (No.2) Act 2002 promulgated on the 24th January, 2003 - with retrospective effect, in terms of clause 47 - from the 4th February, 2002 - Editor.]

6 Constitution of Board

(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Board shall consist of not fewer than five members and not more than seven members appointed by the President after consultation with the Minister.

(2) In appointing the members of the Board the President shall endeavour to secure that members are representative of groups or sectors of the community having an interest in postal services and telecommunications, and, in particular, that at least three members are chosen for their experience or professional qualifications in the following fields or areas of competence^{3/4}

- (a) telecommunications;
- (b) law, accountancy or administration.

7 Terms of office and conditions of service of members

(1) Subject to this Part, a member shall hold office for a period not exceeding three years.

(2) A member shall continue in office after the expiry of his term until he has been re-appointed or his successor has been appointed:

Provided that a member shall not hold office in terms of this subsection for longer than six months.

(3) Subject to section sixteen, a member shall hold office on such terms and conditions of service as the President may fix in relation to members generally.

(4) A retiring member is eligible for re-appointment as a member:

Provided that no member may be re-appointed for a third term in office.

(5) The terms and conditions of office of a member shall not, without the member's consent, be altered to his detriment during his tenure of office.

8 Disqualifications for appointment as member

(1) The President shall not appoint a person as a member and no person shall be qualified to hold office as a member who—

(a) is neither a citizen of Zimbabwe nor permanently resident in Zimbabwe; or

(b) has a financial interest in any business connected with cellular telecommunication, postal or telecommunication services or systems, or is married or connected to or associated with a person who has such an interest or is engaged in such an activity, or has any interest which will interfere with the person's impartial discharge of his duties as a member; or

(c) has, in terms of a law in force in any country—

(i) been adjudged or otherwise declared insolvent or bankrupt and has not been rehabilitated or discharged; or

(ii) made an assignment to, or arrangement or composition with, his creditors which has not been rescinded or set aside;

or

(d) has, within the period of five years immediately preceding the date of his proposed appointment, been convicted—

(i) in Zimbabwe, of an offence; or

(ii) outside Zimbabwe, in respect of conduct which, if committed in Zimbabwe, would constitute an offence; and sentenced to a term of imprisonment imposed without the option of a fine, whether or not any portion has been suspended, and has not received a free pardon.

(2) A person who is —

(a) a member of Parliament; or

(b) a member of two or more other statutory bodies; or

(c)

[repealed by the General Laws Amendment (No.2) Act 2002 promulgated on the 24th January, 2003 - with retrospective effect, in terms of clause 47 - from the 4th February, 2002 - Editor.]

shall not be appointed as a member of the Board, nor shall he be qualified to hold office as a member.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (b) of subsection (2) a person who is appointed to a council, board or other authority which is a statutory body or which is responsible for the administration of the affairs of a statutory body shall be regarded as a member of that statutory body.

9 Vacation of office by member

A member shall vacate his office and his office shall become vacant—

(a) three months after the date upon which he gives notice in writing to the Minister of his intention to resign, or on the expiry of such other period of notice as he and the Minister may agree; or

(b) on the date he begins to serve a sentence of imprisonment imposed without the option of a fine—

(i) in Zimbabwe, in respect of an offence; or

(ii) outside Zimbabwe, in respect of conduct which, if committed in Zimbabwe, would constitute an offence;

or

(c) if he becomes disqualified in terms of paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of subsection (1) of section eight, or in terms of subsection (2) of that section, to hold office as a member; or

(d) if he is required in terms of section ten to vacate his office.

10 Dismissal or suspension of members

(1) The President may require a member to vacate his office if the member—

(a) has, subject to subsection (3), been found to have conducted himself in a manner that renders him unsuitable as a member, including a contravention of section sixteen or subsection (2) of section twenty-four; or

(b) has failed to comply with any term or condition of his office fixed by the President in terms of subsection (3) of section seven; or

(c) is mentally or physically incapable of efficiently carrying out his functions as a member; or

(d) has been absent without the permission of the Board from two consecutive meetings of the Board of which he was given at least seven days' notice, and there was no just cause for the member's absence.

(2) The President, on the recommendation of the Minister, may suspend a member—

(a) whom he suspects on reasonable grounds of having been guilty of conduct referred to in paragraph (a) of subsection (1); or

(b) against whom criminal proceedings have been instituted for an offence in respect of which a sentence of imprisonment without the option of a fine may be imposed; and while that member is so suspended he shall not carry out any functions as a member.

(3) A member suspended in terms of paragraph (a) of subsection (2) shall be given notice in writing of the grounds for the suspension and may, within fourteen days of being so notified, make written representations to the Minister showing cause why no finding of misconduct rendering him unsuitable to be member of the Board should be made.

(4) The President, on the recommendation of the Minister, shall require a member suspended in terms of paragraph (a) of subsection (2) to vacate his office if³/₄

(a) no representations are made by the member in terms of subsection (3);

or

(b) the President finds that, notwithstanding representations made in terms of subsection (3), the member is guilty of the misconduct alleged.

11 Filling of vacancies on Board

On the death of, or vacation of office by, a member, the President may appoint a qualified person to fill the vacancy:

Provided that if as a result of the vacancy the number of members falls below the minimum number specified in section six, the President shall fill the vacancy within three weeks.

12 Chairman and vice-chairman of Board

(1) The President shall designate one of the members as chairman of the Board and another member as vice-chairman of the Board.

(2) The vice-chairman of the Board shall perform the chairman's functions whenever the chairman is for any reason unable to perform them.

(3) The chairman or vice-chairman of the Board may at any time resign his office as such by one month's notice in writing to the Minister.

(4) Whenever the office of chairman or vice-chairman of the Board falls vacant, the President shall fill the vacancy within three weeks.

13 Meetings and procedure of Board

(1) The Board shall hold its first meeting on such date and at such place as the Minister may fix, being not more than three months after the fixed date, and thereafter the Board shall meet for the dispatch of business as often as is necessary or expedient and, subject to this section, may adjourn, close and otherwise regulate its meetings and procedure as it thinks fit:

Provided that the Board shall meet not less than six times in each financial year of the Authority.

(2) The chairman of the Board—

(a) may at any time convene a special meeting of the Board; and

(b) shall convene a special meeting of the Board on the written request of—

(i) the Minister, within such period as the Minister may specify; or

(ii) not fewer than two members, not later than fourteen days after his receipt of such request.

(3) Written notice of any special meeting convened in terms of subsection (2) shall be sent to each member not later than seven days before the meeting and shall specify the business for which the meeting has been convened:

Provided that if, in the opinion of the chairman or Minister, as the case may be, the urgency of the business for which the meeting is to be convened so requires, notice of not less than forty-eight hours may be given.

(4) No business shall be discussed at a special meeting convened in terms of subsection (2) other than—

(a) such business as may be determined by the chairman of the Board, where the chairman of the Board has convened the meeting in terms of paragraph (a) of that subsection; or

(b) the business specified in the request for the meeting, where the chairman of the Board has convened the meeting in terms of paragraph (b) of that subsection.

(5) The chairman or, in his absence, the vice-chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Board:

Provided that, if the chairman and the vice-chairman are both absent from a meeting of the Board, the members present may elect one of their number to preside at that meeting as chairman.

(6) Three members shall form a quorum at any meeting of the Board.

(7) All acts, matters or things authorised or required to be done by the Board may be decided by a majority vote at a meeting of the Board at which a quorum is present.

(8) Subject to section sixteen, at all meetings of the Board each member present shall have one vote on each question before the Board and, in the event of an equality of votes, the chairman shall have a casting vote in addition to a deliberative vote.

(9) Any proposal circulated among all members and agreed to in writing by a majority of all members shall have the same effect as a resolution passed at a duly constituted meeting of the Board and shall be incorporated in the minutes of the next succeeding meeting of the Board:

Provided that, if a member requires that such proposal be placed before a meeting of the Board, this subsection shall not apply to such proposal.

14 Committees of Board

(1) For the better exercise of its functions, the Board may establish one or more committees and vest in the committees such of its functions as it thinks fit:

Provided that the vesting of any functions in a committee shall not divest the Board of those functions in relation to any matter that has not been decided by the committee.

(2) Where it has established a committee, the Board—

(a) shall appoint at least one member of the Board to be a member of the committee and shall designate that member, or one of those members, as the case may be, to be chairman of the committee; and

(b) subject to subsection (3), may appoint persons who are not members of the Board to be members of the committee.

(3) The Board shall not appoint a person to be a member of a committee if he is disqualified in terms of section eight from appointment as a member of the Board.

(4) The office of a member of a committee of the Board shall terminate—

(a) in the case of a member who is a member of the Board, upon his ceasing to be a member of the Board;

(b) in the case of a member who is not a member of the Board, if he would be required in terms of section nine to vacate office had that section and paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of subsection (1) of section eight applied to him.

(5) Subject to this section, members of committees of the Board shall hold office on such conditions as the Board may fix for members of committees generally.

(6) The chairman of the Board may at any time and place convene a meeting of a committee of the Board.

(7) Subject to subsection (2) of section sixteen and section eighteen, the procedure to be followed at any meeting of a committee of the Board shall be fixed by the Board.

15 Remuneration and expenses of members of Board and members of committees

(1) Members of the Board and of committees of the Board shall be paid from the funds of the Authority—

(a) such remuneration, if any, as the Board, with the approval of the Minister, may from time to time fix for such members generally; and

(b) such allowances, if any, as the Board, with the approval of the Minister, may from time to time fix to meet any reasonable expenses incurred by such members in connection with the business of the Board or of the committee concerned, as the case may be.

(2) The remuneration of a member of the Board or of a committee of the Board shall not, without the member's consent, be altered to his detriment during his tenure of office.

16 Members of Board and committees to disclose certain connections and interests

(1) In this section—

“relative”, in relation to a member of the Board or a committee, means the member's spouse, child, parent, brother or sister.

(2) Subject to subsection (4)—

(a) if a member of the Board or of a committee—

(i) knowingly acquires or holds a direct or indirect pecuniary interest in any matter that is under consideration by the Board or the committee; or

(ii) owns any property or has a right in property or a direct or indirect pecuniary interest in a company or association of persons which results in the member's private interests coming or appearing to come into conflict with his functions as a member; or

(iii) knows or has reason to believe that a relative of his—

A. has acquired or holds a direct or indirect pecuniary interest in any matter that is under consideration by the Board or the committee; or

B. owns any property or has a right in property or a direct or indirect pecuniary interest in a company or association of persons which results in the member's private interests coming or appearing to come into conflict with his functions as a member;

or

(b) if for any reason the private interests of a member of the Board or of a committee come into conflict with his functions as a member;

the member shall forthwith disclose the fact to the Board or to the committee, as the case may be.

(3) A member referred to in subsection (2) shall take no part in the consideration or discussion of, or vote on, any question before the Board or the committee, as the case may be, which relates to any contract, right, immovable property or interest referred to in that subsection.

(4) Any person who contravenes subsection (2) or (3) shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding level four or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

[amended by Act 22 of 2001, with effect from the 10th September, 2002]

17 Validity of decisions and acts of Board

No decision or act of the Board or act done under the authority of the Board shall be invalid on the ground that—

(a) the Board consisted of fewer than the minimum number of persons prescribed in subsection (1) of section six; or

(b) a disqualified person acted as a member of the Board at the time the decision was taken or act was done or authorised:

Provided that the Board shall ratify any such decision or action as soon as possible after it becomes aware that the decision or action was taken in the circumstances described in paragraph (a) or (b).

18 Minutes of proceedings of Board and committees

(1) The Board shall cause minutes of all proceedings of and decisions taken at every meeting of the Board or of a committee of the Board to be entered in books kept for the purpose.

(2) Any minutes referred to in subsection (1) which purport to be signed by the chairman of the meeting to which the minutes relate or by the chairman of the next following meeting of the Board or the committee concerned, as the case may be, shall be accepted for all purposes as prima facie evidence of the proceedings of and decisions taken at the meeting concerned.

(3) The Board shall cause copies of all minutes that have been signed as provided in subsection (2) to be sent without delay to the Minister for his information.

PART IV

FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

19 Funds of Authority

The funds of the Authority shall consist of—

(a) fees, charges and other income accruing to the Authority from licences issued and other things done by it in terms of this Act; and

(b) such moneys as may be payable to the Authority from moneys appropriated for the purpose by Act of Parliament; and

(c) such other moneys as may vest in or accrue to the Authority, whether in the course of its operations or otherwise.

20 Surplus funds of Authority to be appropriated to Universal Service Fund
Any surplus of income over expenditure at the end of the Authority's financial year shall be appropriated to the Universal Service Fund established by subsection (1) of section seventy-three.

21 Financial year of Authority

The financial year of the Authority shall be the period of twelve months ending on the 31st December in each year.

22 Accounts of Authority

(1) The Board shall ensure that proper accounts and other records relating to such accounts are kept in respect of all the Authority's activities, funds and property, including such particular accounts and records as the Minister may direct.

(2) Not later than three months after the end of each financial year of the Authority, the Authority shall prepare and submit to the Minister a statement of accounts in respect of that financial year or such other period as the Minister may direct.

23 Audit of Authority's accounts

(1) Subject to the Audit and Exchequer Act [Chapter 22:03], the Authority shall appoint as auditors one or more persons approved by the Minister who are registered as public auditors in terms of the Public Accountants and Auditors Act [Chapter 27:12].

(2) The accounts kept by the Authority in terms of subsection (1) of section twenty-two shall be examined by the auditors appointed in terms of subsection (1).

(3) The auditors appointed in terms of subsection (1) shall make a report to the Board and the Minister on the statement of accounts prepared in terms of subsection (2) of section twenty-two and such report shall state whether or not in their opinion the statement of accounts gives a true and fair view of the Authority's affairs.

(4) In addition to the report referred to in subsection (3), the Minister may require the Board to obtain from the auditors appointed in terms of subsection (1) such other reports, statements or explanations in connection with the Authority's operations, funds and property as the Minister may consider expedient, and the Board shall forthwith comply with any such requirement.

24 Powers of auditors

(1) An auditor referred to in section twenty-three shall be entitled at all reasonable times to require to be produced to him all accounts and other records relating to such accounts which are kept by the Authority or its agents and to require from any member of the Board or employee or agent of the Authority such information and explanations as in the auditor's opinion are necessary for the purposes of his audit.

(2) Any member of the Board or employee or agent of the Authority who fails without just cause to comply with a requirement of an auditor in terms of subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding level four or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

[amended by Act 22 of 2001, with effect from the 10th September, 2002]

PART V

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS RELATING TO AUTHORITY

25 Minister may give policy directions

(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Minister may give the Board such general directions relating to the policy the Authority is to observe in the exercise of its functions as the Minister considers to be necessary in the national interest.

(2) Before giving the Board a direction in terms of subsection (1), the Minister shall inform the Board, in writing, of the proposed direction and the Board shall, within thirty days or such further period as the Minister may allow, submit to the Minister, in writing, its views on the proposal.

(3) The Board shall take all necessary steps to comply with any direction given to it in terms of subsection (1).

(4) When any direction has been given to the Board in terms of subsection (1), the Board shall ensure that the direction and any views the Board has expressed on it in terms of subsection (2) are set out in the Authority's annual report.

26 Minister may direct Board to reverse, suspend or rescind its decisions or actions

(1) Subject to subsection (2), where the Minister, after consultation with the President, is of the view on reasonable grounds that any decision or action of the Board is not in the national or public interest or the interests of consumers or licensees as a whole, the Minister may direct the Board in writing to reverse, suspend or rescind such decision or to reverse, suspend or rescind such action.

(2) Before making any direction in terms of subsection (1), the Minister shall inform the Board in writing of his intention to do so, setting out the purport of the proposed direction and his grounds for making it, and the Board may, within fourteen days of being so informed, make written representations to the Minister on the matter.

(3) The Board shall, with due expedition or within a period that the Minister may direct in writing, comply with any direction given to it in terms of subsection (1).

27 Execution of contracts and instruments by Authority

Any agreement, contract or instrument approved by the Board may be entered into or executed on behalf of the Authority by any persons generally or specially authorised by the Board for that purpose.

28 Reports of Authority

(1) In addition to any report which the Authority is required to submit to the Minister in terms of this Act or the Audit and Exchequer Act [Chapter 22:03], the Authority—

(a) shall submit to the Minister such other reports as the Minister may require; and

(b) may submit to the Minister such other reports as the Authority considers advisable; in regard to the operations and property of the Authority.

(2) The Minister shall, within six months of the end of the Authority's financial year, lay before Parliament a report submitted to him by the Authority in terms of subsection (1), together with the statement of accounts and auditor's report for the preceding financial year of the Authority referred to in sections twenty-two and twenty-three.

29 Director-General and other employees of Authority

(1) For the better exercise of the functions of the Authority the Board shall, in consultation with the Minister, appoint a person to be the Director-General of the Authority, on such terms and conditions as the Board, with the approval of the Minister, may fix.

(2) The Board shall terminate the appointment of the Director-General if he would be required in terms of paragraph (b) or (c) of section nine to vacate his office had that section and paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of subsection (1) of section eight, and subsection (2) of that section, applied to him.

(3) The Board shall not terminate the services of the Director-General on a ground other than one referred to in subsection (2) without the approval of the Minister.

(4) The Board shall employ such persons in addition to the Director-General as it considers expedient for the better exercise of the functions of the Authority.

(5) Subject to the general control of the Board, the Director-General shall be responsible for^{3/4}

(a) managing the operations and property of the Authority; and

(b) supervising and controlling the activities of the employees of the Authority in the course of their employment.

(6) The Board may assign to the Director-General such of the functions of the Board as the Board thinks fit:

Provided that the Board shall not assign to the Director-General any duty that has been assigned to the chairman of the Board.

(7) Any assignment of functions in terms of subsection (6) may be made either generally or specially and subject to such reservations, restrictions and exceptions as the Board may determine, and may be revoked by the Board at any time.

(8) The Director-General shall have the right to attend meetings of the Board and, except in the case of any discussion relating to the terms and conditions of his appointment, to take part in the proceedings of the Board as if he were a member, but shall not have a vote on any question before the Board.

30 Exemption from liability for Authority

No liability shall attach to the Authority or to any employee of the Authority or the Board or to a member of the Board or any committee of the Board for any loss or damage sustained by any person as a result of the bona fide exercise or performance of any function which by or in terms of this Act is conferred or imposed upon the Authority or the Board:

Provided that this section shall not be construed so as to prevent any person from recovering compensation for any loss or damage sustained by him which was caused by negligence.

PART VI

LICENCES

31 Cellular telecommunication licence

(1) Subject to this Act, no person shall provide a cellular telecommunication service or operate a cellular telecommunication system or operate a radiocommunication service for the purpose of a cellular telecommunication service except in accordance with a cellular telecommunication licence.

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of not exceeding level fourteen or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

[amended by Act 22 of 2001, with effect from the 10th September, 2002]

(3) In addition to any punishment it may impose under subsection (2) and without derogation from its powers under any enactment, a court convicting a person of contravening subsection (1) shall declare forfeited to the State any equipment or apparatus used for the purpose of or in connection with the offence:

Provided that the court shall not make such a declaration if the convicted person satisfies the court that, for reasons which it shall record, there are special reasons in the particular case why the equipment or apparatus concerned should not be forfeited.

(4) The proviso to subsection (1) and subsections (3), (4), (5) and (6) of section 62 of the Criminal Procedure and Evidence Act [Chapter 9:07] shall apply, mutatis mutandis, in relation to a declaration in terms of subsection (3).

32 Postal licence

(1) In this section^{3/4}

“appropriate successor company” means the successor company or, where more than one successor company is formed, the company licensed in terms of section one hundred and thirteen to provide the postal services carried on by the Corporation immediately before the fixed date.

(2) Subject to this section, no person shall operate a postal service except in accordance with a postal licence.

(3) Except as otherwise prescribed, a postal licence shall not authorise any person, other than the Corporation or the appropriate successor company, to provide a reserved postal service:

[amended by the General Laws Amendment (No.2) Act 2002 promulgated on the 24th January, 2003 - with retrospective effect, in terms of clause 47 - from the 4th February, 2002 - Editor.]

Provided that, if the appropriate successor company ceases to exist or to operate a postal service, or if its postal licence is cancelled or suspended, the Authority, after consultation with the Minister, may issue a postal licence to any other person authorising that person to provide the reserved postal service concerned.

(4) Any person who contravenes subsection (2) shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding level ten or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

[amended by Act 22 of 2001, with effect from the 10th September, 2002]

(5) In addition to any punishment it may impose under subsection (4) and without derogation from its powers under any enactment, a court convicting a person of contravening subsection (2) shall declare forfeited to the State any equipment or apparatus used for the purpose of or in connection with the offence:

Provided that the court shall not make such a declaration if the convicted person satisfies the court that, for reasons which it shall record, there are special reasons in the particular case why the equipment or apparatus concerned should not be forfeited.

(6) The proviso to subsection (1) and subsections (3), (4), (5) and (6) of section 62 of the Criminal Procedure and Evidence Act [Chapter 9:07] shall apply, mutatis mutandis, in relation to a declaration in terms of subsection (5).

33 Radio station licence

(1) Subject to this section, no person, other than the Broadcasting Corporation, shall have in his possession or under his control or work a radio station specified in the First Schedule, except in accordance with a radio station licence.

(2) Subject to this section, no person other than the Zimbabwe Broadcasting Corporation or a person licensed in terms of the Broadcasting Services Act [Chapter 12:06] shall have in his possession or under his control or work a radio transmitting station which is not a radio station specified in the First Schedule.

(2) Subject to this section, no person shall have in his possession or under his control or work a radio transmitting station which is not a radio station specified in the First Schedule.

(3) The Authority may issue a temporary radio station licence authorising a person to possess a radio station referred to in subsection (1) or a radio transmitting station referred to in subsection (2) for a limited period on condition that the station is not used for the purpose of carrying on a radiocommunication service.

(4) Subsection (1) shall not, except in so far as it relates to the working of a radio station referred to in that subsection, apply to a person referred to in subsection (3) of section forty-four unless he has failed to dispose of the radio station in his possession or under his control within the period specified by the Authority in terms of that subsection.

(5) Subsection (1) shall not apply to an authorised repairer who, for the purposes of testing and repair, has in his possession or under his control or works a radio transmitting station referred to in that subsection.

(6) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding level ten or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

[amended by Act 22 of 2001, with effect from the 10th September, 2002]

(7) In addition to any punishment it may impose under subsection (6) and without derogation from its powers under any enactment, a court convicting a person of contravening subsection (1) or (2) shall declare forfeited to the State any equipment or apparatus used for the purpose of or in connection with the offence:

Provided that the court shall not make such a declaration if the convicted person satisfies the court that, for reasons which it shall record, there are special reasons in the particular case why the equipment or apparatus concerned should not be forfeited.

(8) The proviso to subsection (1) and subsections (3), (4), (5) and (6) of section 62 of the Criminal Procedure and Evidence Act [Chapter 9:07] shall apply, mutatis mutandis, in relation to a declaration in terms of subsection (7).

34 Telecommunication licence

(1) Subject to this section and section thirty-five, no person shall provide a telecommunication service or operate a telecommunication system except in accordance with a telecommunication licence.

(2) Subject to the terms and conditions of the licence, a telecommunication licence shall authorise the licensee to operate a telecommunication system or provide a telecommunication service, including, in particular, any one or more of the following services as may be specified in the licence^{3/4}

- (a) a radiocommunication service;
- (b) a fixed-line telephone service;
- (c) a telegraph service;
- (d) a telex service;
- (e) a satellite telephone service;
- (f) an Internet service;
- (g) an electronic mail service;
- (h) the leasing of telecommunication lines;
- (i) such other telecommunication service as the Minister may prescribe for the purposes of this section.

(3) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding level ten or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

[amended by Act 22 of 2001, with effect from the 10th September, 2002]

(4) In addition to any punishment it may impose under subsection (3) and without derogation from its powers under any enactment, a court convicting a person of contravening subsection (2) shall declare forfeited to the State any equipment or apparatus used for the purpose of or in connection with the offence:

Provided that the court shall not make such a declaration if the convicted person satisfies the court that, for reasons which it shall record, there are special reasons in the particular case why the equipment or apparatus concerned should not be forfeited.

(5) The proviso to subsection (1) and subsections (3), (4), (5) and (6) of section 62 of the Criminal Procedure and Evidence Act [Chapter 9:07] shall apply, mutatis mutandis, in relation to a declaration in terms of subsection (4).

35 Private telecommunication licence

(1) Subject to this Act, no person shall provide or operate a private telecommunication service or system except in accordance with a private telecommunication licence.

(2) Subject to the terms and conditions of the licence, a private telecommunication licence shall authorise the licensee^{3/4}

- (a) to provide or operate a private telecommunication service or system:

Provided that a person licensed to operate a telecommunication service referred to in paragraph (a) of the definition of “private telecommunication service or system” in subsection (1) of section two shall not establish or maintain a private automatic branch exchange that is connected with a telecommunication system established, maintained or worked by a telecommunication licensee unless the telecommunication licensee is approved by the Authority as a supplier; and

- (b) work a telecommunication system and any apparatus or equipment necessary for its working, if the system, apparatus and equipment is supplied by a telecommunication licensee for his exclusive use or for the exclusive use of a group of persons of which he is a member.

(3) In pursuance of rights conferred and to the extent authorised by or under^{3/4}

- (a) the Electricity Act [Chapter 13:05], the Zimbabwe Electricity Supply Authority; and

- (b) the Railways Act [Chapter 13:09], the National Railways of Zimbabwe; shall, subject to subsection (4), be deemed to be private telecommunication licensees for the purpose of operating the same private telecommunication systems that they operated immediately before the fixed date.

(4) The Authority shall without delay cause private telecommunication licences to be issued to the statutory bodies referred to in subsection (3), and those licences may be renewed or amended, but not, except with the consent of the Minister, suspended or cancelled, in all respects as if they had been issued in terms of this Part.

(5) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding level ten or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

[amended by Act 22 of 2001, with effect from the 10th September, 2002]

(6) In addition to any punishment it may impose under subsection (5) and without derogation from its powers under any enactment, a court convicting a person of contravening subsection (1) shall declare forfeited to the State any equipment or apparatus used for the purpose of or in connection with the offence:

Provided that the court shall not make such a declaration if the convicted person satisfies the court that, for reasons which it shall record, there are special reasons in the particular case why the equipment or apparatus concerned should not be forfeited.

(7) The proviso to subsection (1) and subsections (3), (4), (5) and (6) of section 62 of the Criminal Procedure and Evidence Act [Chapter 9:07] shall apply, mutatis mutandis, in relation to a declaration in terms of subsection (6).

36 Persons disqualified to be licensed

(1) The Authority shall not issue a cellular telecommunication licence, postal licence or telecommunication licence to any person other than a body corporate in which a controlling interest is held, directly or indirectly, whether through any individual, company or association or otherwise, by one or more individuals who are citizens of Zimbabwe and ordinarily resident in Zimbabwe:

Provided that a licence may be issued to a body corporate in which no such controlling interest is held, subject to the condition that, within a period specified in the licence, a controlling interest is held by one or more such individuals.

(2) For the purposes of this section “controlling interest”, in relation to a body corporate holding a cellular telecommunication licence, postal licence, radio station licence or telecommunication licence, means^{3/4}

- (a) the majority of shares in the body corporate; or
- (b) shares representing more than half the share capital of the body corporate; or
- (c) shares of a value in excess of half the share capital of the body corporate; or
- (d) shares entitling the holders thereof to a majority or preponderance of votes in the affairs of the body corporate.

(3) The Authority shall not, without the authority in writing of the Minister, issue a radio station licence to a person who is not a citizen of Zimbabwe or ordinarily resident in Zimbabwe or to a body corporate other than a body corporate in which a controlling interest is held in terms of subsections (1) and (2).

37 Application for and issue and publication or refusal of licence

(1) An application for a licence shall be made to the Authority in the form and manner prescribed and be accompanied by the prescribed fee, if any, and such information or documents as may be prescribed or as it may require, including information concerning any tariff required in terms of section one hundred.

(2) An applicant for a cellular telecommunication licence, a postal licence, a radio station licence or a telecommunication licence who owns more than ten per centum of the shares in a body corporate which has applied for or holds another such licence shall disclose such interest to the Authority in his application.

(3) An applicant for a cellular telecommunication licence or telecommunication licence shall specify in his application whether the application is made in respect of the provision of a cellular telecommunication or telecommunication service or the operation of a cellular telecommunication or telecommunication system, or both.

(4) Subject to subsection (6) and (8) and to sections forty-four and forty-seven, if on consideration of an application in terms of subsection (1) the Authority is satisfied that^{3/4}

- (a) the applicant will comply with such of the provisions of this Act as apply to the service or system he intends to provide or operate; and

(b) the grant of the licence does not infringe the rights of a prior licensee; and

(c) in the case of an applicant referred to in subsection (2), the grant of the licence is not detrimental to the interests of consumers, purchasers and other users of the services concerned;

the Authority shall issue a cellular telecommunication licence, a postal licence, a radio station licence, a telecommunication licence or a private telecommunication licence, as the case may be, to the applicant.

(5) Within thirty days after the issue of a licence referred to in subsection (4) the licensee shall, at his own expense, cause the licence to be published in a newspaper circulating in the area in which he intends to operate as a licensee.

(6) Subject to subsection (7) and to section ninety-six, if on consideration of an application in terms of subsection (1), the Authority—

(a) is not satisfied as to the matters referred to in subsection (4); or

(b) considers that the service or system in respect of which the application is made is adequately provided for by a prior licensee, or that the efficiency of the provision or operation of the service or system in question by any prior licensee may be compromised if the application is granted; or subject to regulations the Authority may refuse to issue a licence to the applicant concerned:

(c) considers that it would not be in the public interest to issue a licence to the applicant;

Provided that—

(i) before refusing to issue a licence on the ground referred to in paragraph (a), the Authority shall notify the applicant in writing that it proposes to refuse the application and of its reasons for doing so, and shall afford the applicant an adequate opportunity to make representations in the matter;

(ii) within ten days after deciding to refuse to issue a licence on any ground, the Authority shall notify the applicant in writing of its decision and of the reasons for it.

(7) The period between the Authority's receipt of an application in terms of subsection (1) and all documents and information submitted in support of it, and the date on which it notifies the applicant of its decision or proposed decision in terms of subsection (4) or (6), as the case may be, shall not exceed six months unless the applicant consents to an extension of the period.

38 Terms and conditions of licence

(1) A licence shall be issued subject to such terms and conditions as may be prescribed or as the Authority may reasonably determine.

(2) In the case of a licence issued to an applicant referred to in subsection (2) of section thirty-seven, the licence may be issued subject to the condition that the licensee shall divest himself within a specified time of any holding of shares in another licensee exceeding ten per centum.

(3) No radio station licensee shall employ a person who is not a citizen of Zimbabwe ordinarily resident in Zimbabwe to work or assist in the working or maintenance of a licensed radio station or to carry on or assist in carrying on a radiocommunication service from a licensed radio station.

(4) It shall be a condition of every cellular telecommunication licence and telecommunication licence which authorises the licensee to operate a radiocommunication service that the licensee shall comply with the International Telecommunication Constitution.

(5) It shall be a condition of every postal licence that the licensee shall comply with the Constitution of the Universal Postal Union.

(6) In issuing or renewing a radio station licence, the Authority may impose terms and conditions in regard to the site at which, the purposes for which, the times during which and the manner in which the radio station in respect of which the licence is issued is to be established and worked, the class or type of the radio station and the method of its installation, and in so doing may exclude or vary, as circumstances may require, any prescribed terms or conditions.

39 Form and period of validity of licence

(1) A licence shall be in the prescribed form and shall specify—

- (a) the type of licence; and
- (b) the name of the licensee; and
- (c) the date of issue and expiry of the licence; and
- (d) any terms and conditions subject to which the licence is issued; and
- (e) any other matters which the Authority considers necessary to give effect to this Act.

(2) A licence shall be valid for such period, whether definite or indefinite, as may be determined by the Authority.

40 Register of licences

(1) The Authority shall maintain or cause to be maintained a register of licences in which shall be recorded, in relation to each licence—

- (a) the name of the licensee; and
- (b) the nature of the licence; and
- (c) any terms and conditions subject to which the licence was issued; and
- (d) any renewal, amendment, suspension or cancellation of the licence.

(2) The register kept in terms of subsection (1) shall be open for inspection by members of the public at all reasonable times at the offices of the Authority on payment of the prescribed fee, if any.

41 Renewal of licence and annual licence fees

(1) Subject to this Act, the holder of a licence may renew it before it expires.

(2) An application for the renewal of a licence shall be made to the Authority in the form and manner and within the period prescribed, and be accompanied by the prescribed fee, if any.

(3) Section thirty-seven shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to the renewal of licences.

(4) The Authority may, in respect of the continuation of a current licence, require the licensee to pay a prescribed annual fee, which fee may be fixed as a proportion of the gross audited annual revenue of the licensee.

[amended by the General Laws Amendment (No.2) Act 2002 promulgated on the 24th January, 2003 - with retrospective effect, in terms of clause 47 - from the 4th February, 2002 - Editor.]

42 Amendment of licence

(1) Subject to this section, the Authority may at any time amend a licence or any term or condition of a licence—

- (a) to correct any error in the licence; or
- (b) if the licensee requests the amendment; or
- (c) if the Authority considers the amendment necessary to reflect the true nature of the service, system or business which the licensee is conducting; or
- (d) if for any other reason the Authority considers the amendment necessary or desirable in the public interest.

(2) Before amending a licence in terms of subsection (1), otherwise than at the request of the licensee, the Authority shall notify the licensee in writing of the nature of the amendment it proposes to make and of its reasons for wishing to make the amendment, and shall give the licensee an adequate opportunity to make representations in the matter.

(3) If the Authority refuses to amend a licence at the request of the licensee, it shall, within ten days after reaching its decision, notify the licensee in writing of its decision and of the reasons for it.

43 Suspension, cancellation and enforcement of licences

(1) Subject to this section and section forty-four, the Authority may suspend or cancel any licence if the Authority has reasonable grounds for believing that—

(a) the licence was issued in error or through fraud or the misrepresentation or non-disclosure of a material fact by the licensee; or

(b) the licensee has contravened any provision of this Act that is applicable to him; or

(c) the licensee misrepresents the service or system he offers to the public; or

(d) the licensee has ceased to provide the service or system specified in the licence; or

(e) the licensee has assigned, ceded or otherwise transferred the licence to another person without the prior approval of the Authority; or

(f) the licensee has failed to comply with any term or condition of the licence.

(2) Before taking any action in terms of subsection (1), the Authority shall notify the licensee in writing of its intention to suspend or cancel the licence concerned and the reasons for doing so, and shall call upon the licensee to show cause, within such reasonable period as may be specified in the notice, why the licence should not be suspended or cancelled, as the case may be.

(3) If, at the expiry of the period specified in the notice given in terms of subsection (2), and after considering any representations made by the licensee, the Authority is satisfied for any reason specified in subsection (1) that the licence concerned should be suspended or cancelled, the Authority may, by notice in writing to the licensee, suspend or cancel the licence or take such other action as it considers appropriate.

(4) Without derogation from its powers in terms of subsections (1), (2) and (3), where the Authority is satisfied that a licensee is contravening, has contravened or is likely to contravene any of the terms or conditions of his licence, the Authority may serve upon the licensee an order^{3/4}

(a) requiring the licensee to do, or not to do, such things as are specified in the order for the purpose of rectifying or avoiding any contravention or threatened contravention of any term or condition of the licence; and

(b) stipulating the period within which any requirement referred to in paragraph (a) shall be commenced and completed;

and notice of the order shall be published by the Authority in such manner as it considers appropriate to draw the attention of other persons affected or likely to be affected by the contravention or threatened contravention of the licence.

(5) Before serving an order in terms of subsection (4), the Authority shall serve a notice upon the licensee concerned^{3/4}

(a) specifying the grounds upon which the order is to be issued and what the Authority considers is required for the purpose of rectifying or avoiding any contravention or threatened contravention of any term or condition of the licence; and

(b) stipulating the maximum period that the Authority considers reasonable for the implementation of any requirement it proposes to order; and

(c) calling upon the licensee, if he wishes to make representations, to make them to the Authority within such period from the date of service of the notice as it shall specify.

(6) After considering any representations made in terms of paragraph (c) of subsection (5), the Authority may serve, or refrain from or defer serving, an order in terms of subsection (4), or serve an order on different terms.

(7) An order served in terms of subsection (4) may specify a penalty for each day that the licensee subjected to the order is in default of compliance with the order, not exceeding the period and amount prescribed.

(8) The obligation to comply with an order served in terms of subsection (4) is a duty owed to any person who may suffer loss or damage by a contravention of it.

(9) Civil proceedings for specific performance, an interdict, damages, the recovery of any penalty imposed in terms of subsection (7) or other appropriate relief in respect of any contravention or threatened contravention of an order served in terms of subsection (4) may be brought against the licensee concerned by the Authority and, additionally, or alternatively, by any person referred to in subsection (8).

(10) The amount of any penalty imposed in terms of subsection (7) shall form part of the funds of the Authority.

44 Powers of Authority in connection with radio station licences

(1) Without derogation from section forty-three, the Authority may at any time—

(a) suspend for a period specified by the Authority or cancel a radio station licence;

(b) refuse to issue or renew a radio station licence;

if it is satisfied, after due inquiry, that the suspension or cancellation or the refusal to issue or renew the licence is justified in the public interest.

(2) Without derogation from the generality of subsection (1), the Authority may cancel or refuse to renew a radio station licence in terms of that subsection on the ground that—

(a) the radio station in respect of which the licence was issued or the radio apparatus used in connection therewith—

(i) prevents the erection or installation of plant, radio or other apparatus or equipment of a cellular telecommunication or telecommunication licensee; or

(ii) injures or interferes with the working of a radio station or the carrying on of a radiocommunication service or telecommunication system established by a cellular telecommunication or telecommunication licensee, whether before or after the date of issue of the radio station licence; or

(iii) is likely to injure or interfere with radio or other apparatus, equipment, circuits, instruments, wires and the like erected, installed or operated by a cellular telecommunication or telecommunication licensee before or after the date of issue of the radio station licence;

or

(b) radiocommunication services or telecommunication systems established after the date of issue of the radio station licence are available to the licensee and, in the opinion of the Authority, provide an adequate means of communication for his purposes.

(3) If an appeal under section ninety-six in connection with a radio station licence to which subsection (2) relates is withdrawn, abandoned or dismissed, the person having possession or control of the radio station in respect of which the licence was issued shall dispose of the radio station within such period as the Authority may specify in writing.

(4) No person whose radio station licence has been suspended in terms of subsection (1) shall, whilst his licence is suspended, work the radio station or carry on any activity in respect of which the licence was issued for the purpose of carrying on a telecommunication system or radiocommunication service.

(5) The Authority shall not be liable to refund to a person whose licence is cancelled or suspended in terms of subsection (1) the fee or any portion of the fee paid on the issue of the licence.

45 Licensee to inform Authority of changes

(1) A licensee shall without delay inform the Authority of any material alteration in the information or particulars furnished by him when he applied for his licence.

(2) A licensee, other than a private telecommunication licensee, shall without delay inform the Authority of any transfer to or by any single person of more than ten per centum of the shares in the licensee.

46 Transfer of licences prohibited

No licensee shall assign, cede or otherwise transfer his licence to any other person without the prior approval of the Authority.

47 Frequency bids

(1) In this section^{3/4}

“appropriate successor company” means the successor company or, where more than one successor company is formed, the company licensed in terms of section one hundred and thirteen to provide the cellular telecommunication or telecommunication services carried on by the Corporation immediately before the fixed date, as the case may be;

“evaluation committee” means the committee appointed in terms of paragraph (c) of subsection (2).

(2) The Authority may, without prejudice to the rights of the appropriate successor company, a prior licensee or the Broadcasting Corporation^{3/4}

(a) identify the frequencies in which it is appropriate to provide a cellular telecommunication service or a telecommunication service; and

(b) prepare specifications for a cellular telecommunication service or a telecommunication service to be provided in each of the frequencies referred to in paragraph (a); and

(c) appoint an evaluation committee consisting of the Director-General as chairman or any person delegated by him for the purpose and not less than three or more than five other members, not being members of the Authority, for the purpose of evaluating applications for any licence for a cellular telecommunication service or a telecommunication service for which specifications have been prepared in terms of paragraph (b).

(3) In appointing the members of the evaluation committee the Board shall endeavour to secure that each member is representative of groups or sectors of the community having an interest in telecommunications, or is chosen for his experience or professional qualifications in any one of the following fields or areas of competence^{3/4}

(a) telecommunications technology;

(b) law, accountancy or administration.

(4) Where the Authority proposes to exercise its powers in terms of subsection (2) it shall cause a notice to be published in the Gazette and in such newspaper as the Authority thinks appropriate^{3/4}

(a) describing the relevant specifications prepared in terms of paragraph (b) of subsection (2); and

(b) indicating any conditions subject to which the relevant licence will be granted; and

(c) calling upon proposed applicants for the relevant licence to submit their applications to the Authority by a specified date.

(5) The Authority shall without delay refer any application received in terms of paragraph (c) of subsection (4) to the evaluation committee for its opinion as to whether the application qualifies for consideration in terms of paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (4), and, if two or more such applications qualify for consideration, the Authority shall cause a further notice to be published in the Gazette calling upon the applicants concerned and any interested person who wishes to do so to make oral or written representations on the applications to the evaluation committee at the dates, times and places specified in the notice.

(6) For the purposes of receiving representations in terms of subsection (5) the members of the evaluation committee shall have all of the powers, rights, privileges and duties conferred or imposed upon a commissioner by the Commissions of Inquiry Act [Chapter 10:07], other than the power to order a person to be detained in custody, and sections 9 to 13 and 15 to 18 of that Act shall apply, mutatis mutandis, in relation to any hearing conducted by the evaluation committee and to any person summoned to give or giving evidence for the purpose of the hearing.

(7) In any hearing conducted in terms of subsection (6) the evaluation committee shall ensure that the rules commonly known as the rules of natural justice are duly observed and, in particular, shall take all reasonable steps to ensure that every person whose interests are likely to be affected by the outcome of the hearing is given an adequate opportunity to make representations in the matter.

(8) After considering any representations received pursuant to a notice published in terms of subsection (6), the evaluation committee shall make a report of its findings and recommendations to the Authority, and the Authority shall, in such manner as it thinks fit, publish the report.

(9) The Authority shall pay due regard to the findings or recommendations of the evaluation committee made in terms of subsection (8) when the Authority decides whether or not to issue the licence concerned.

PART VII

POSTAL SERVICES

48 Postal licensees to comply with licence and regulations

A postal licensee shall conduct his postal service in accordance with his licence and regulations made in terms of section ninety-nine.

49 Money orders and postal orders

(1) A postal licensee may—

(a) arrange for the remittance of moneys to, from or within Zimbabwe through post offices by means of money orders;

(b) authorise the issue of money orders in the special form of postal orders.

(2) The conditions under which money orders or postal orders shall be issued and paid shall be as prescribed.

(3) Any money paid to a postal licensee in respect of the issue of a money order shall form part of the licensee's income, and if a money order is not claimed and the remitter of that money order cannot be found within three years of the date of the issue of the money order, no liability shall attach to the licensee in respect of the amount of that money order.

50 Delivery of postal articles

(1) The Authority may, from time to time, by notice in the Gazette, publish the specifications relating to the number, place, dimensions and other characteristics of letter boxes to be used by postal licensees, and may approve the installation and use of such other mail delivery systems or arrangements as it thinks fit.

(2) A developer of any residential, commercial or industrial building shall—

(a) provide one letter box per unit in the case of any residential building and one letter box per tenant in the case of any commercial or industrial building; and

(b) ensure that the letter boxes provided under paragraph (a) are numbered in numerical sequence; and

(c) comply with any other specifications published by the Authority in terms of subsection (1).

51 Posting boxes

(1) Subject to such terms and conditions as may be determined by the Authority, a postal licensee may erect, maintain and use posting boxes and postage label vending machines in any public road, street or highway or in any other public place, and may remove any such posting box or postage label vending machine erected by it.

(2) The Authority may determine the conditions subject to which a postal licensee shall be entitled to use posting boxes erected or owned by another such licensee.

52 Provision of postage stamps

(1) In this section—

“philatelic archival materials” include^{3/4}

(a) philatelic stamps; and

(b) artworks, proofs, progressive sheets, printed sheets and printing plates of philatelic stamps; and

(c) date-stamps, slogan dies and other artefacts used in connection with the production of philatelic stamps.

(2) Subject to this Act and any directions given by the Authority, a postal licence authorising the provision by the licensee of postage stamps may cause postage stamps to be provided of such kinds and denoting such values as the licensee may determine.

(3) A postage stamp provided under this section shall be used for the prepayment of any postage or other sum chargeable in respect of any postal article, except where the postal licensee concerned determines that prepayment may be made in some other manner.

(4) All philatelic archival materials produced by a postal licensee shall be kept in such custody as the Authority directs.

53 Official marks to be prima facie evidence of certain facts denoted

In any proceedings for the recovery of any postage or other fee or sum payable in respect of a postal article—

(a) the production of a postal article having thereon the official mark of a postal licensee denoting that the article has been refused or that the addressee is dead or cannot be found shall be prima facie evidence of the fact so denoted; and

(b) the person from whom any postal article purports to come shall, until the contrary is proved, be deemed to be the sender thereof.

54 Recovery of postage and other sums due in respect of postal services

(1) Where any postage or other fee or sum is not prepaid or fully prepaid in respect of a postal article posted for delivery by a postal licensee, the postal licensee may refuse to deliver the postal article until the postage or other fee or sum has been paid to or recovered by him.

(2) If any postage or other fee or sum has not been paid or recovered within six months of a written demand by the postal licensee made to the person liable to pay it, the licensee may dispose of the postal article in any manner described in paragraph (d) of subsection (1) of section fifty-five, and paragraph (e) of subsection (1) and subsection (2) of that section shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to such disposal.

(3) An official mark or label on a postal article denoting that any postage or other fee or sum is due in respect thereof to a postal licensee or to the postal authority of any foreign country shall be prima facie evidence that the postage or other fee or sum denoted is so due.

55 Undeliverable postal articles

(1) The following provisions shall apply to any postal article which a postal licensee is unable to deliver or return to the sender after using his best efforts^{3/4}

(a) the postal licensee shall have the right to open and examine the postal article for the purpose of determining from its contents the identity and address of the addressee or sender;

(b) the opening and examination of any postal article in terms of paragraph (a) shall be done by an employee of the postal licensee authorised in writing generally or specifically for the purpose by the postal licensee;

(c) if, after an examination in terms of paragraph (a), the postal licensee^{3/4}

(i) determines the identity and address of the addressee or the sender, he shall re-seal the postal article and enclose or append a written explanation of the reasons and the authority for opening it; or

(ii) fails to determine the identity and address of the addressee or the sender, he shall hold the postal article for six months after the date of the examination and, on being satisfied at any time within that period that any person enquiring for it is entitled to the postal article, deliver it to that person;

(d) if no delivery of the postal article is made in terms of subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (c), the postal licensee may^{3/4}

(i) destroy the postal article or any of its contents; or

(ii) sell any of the contents of the postal article and credit the proceeds to his income;

(e) if the postal article is disposed of in terms of paragraph (d), the postal licensee shall make a record of the disposal and store such record together with other such records in a manner prescribed, or approved by the Authority, for a period of not less than twelve months from the date of the disposal, and the postal licensee shall make such record available for inspection by the Authority at its request.

(2) No liability shall attach to a postal licensee in respect of any postal article dealt with in terms of subsection (1).

56 Restriction on opening of postal articles

Except as otherwise provided by or in terms of this Act or any other law, after a postal article has been delivered to a postal licensee, no person shall open that article.

57 Detention and examination of postal articles

(1) Subject to this section, if there are reasonable grounds to suspect that a postal article in the custody of a postal licensee—

(a) contains anything in respect of which an offence or attempted offence is being committed; or

(b) contains anything that will afford evidence of the commission of an offence; or

(c) is being sent in contravention of this Act or in order to further the commission of an offence;
the postal licensee—

(i) may, if specifically or generally authorised to do so by the Attorney-General or by a person designated by the Attorney-General; and

(ii) shall, if directed to do so by the Attorney-General or by a person designated by the Attorney-General; detain the postal article and open and examine it in the presence of a police officer or such other person as may be prescribed.

(2) If, on an examination of a postal article in terms of subsection (1) —

(a) the suspicion that gave rise to its examination is substantiated, the postal article may be detained for the purposes of prosecution or destroyed or dealt with in such other manner as may be prescribed;

(b) the suspicion that gave rise to its examination is not substantiated, the postal article shall be delivered to the person to whom it is addressed or to his representative on payment of any postage payable thereon.

(3) Subject to this section, if the Director of Customs and Excise or any customs officer designated by him suspects on reasonable grounds that any postal article in the custody of a postal licensee contains goods liable to duty or tax imposed under any enactment, he may —

(a) examine the postal article; and

(b) for the purpose of such examination, require an employee of the postal licensee to open the postal article in his presence.

(4) If, on an examination of a postal article in terms of subsection (3) —

(a) any goods liable to duty or tax are discovered in the postal article, it may be detained for the purposes of prosecution or may be delivered to the person to whom it is addressed or to his representative on payment of the duty or tax and any postage payable thereon;

(b) no goods liable to duty or tax are discovered in the postal article, it shall be delivered to the person to whom it is addressed or to his representative on payment of any postage payable thereon.

(5) If the Minister, by written notice to a postal licensee, certifies that it is necessary in the interests of defence, public safety or public order for a postal article in the licensee's custody to be detained and additionally, or alternatively, opened and examined, the postal licensee shall forthwith comply with the notice.

58 Exclusion of liability of postal licensees

(1) A postal licensee shall not be liable in respect of any injury, loss or damage suffered by any person by reason of—

(a) any loss, misdelivery or delay of or damage to any postal article in the course of transmission by post; or

(b) any failure to provide or delay in providing any postal service or any equipment associated therewith or service ancillary thereto; or

(c) any failure, interruption, suspension or restriction of any postal service or service ancillary thereto or delay of, or fault in, any communication by post; or

(d) any loss of secrecy in communication arising from the use of any postal service; or

(e) any wrong payment or delay in payment in connection with any remittance of money through the post or any other irregularity in the document used in connection with the remittance.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), in the event of the loss of or damage to any article enclosed in or forming part of a parcel or an insured postal article, or the loss of any registered postal article while in the custody of a postal licensee, the licensee may pay an indemnity in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution of the Universal Postal Union or any international agreement to which Zimbabwe is a party.

PART VIII

TELECOMMUNICATION SERVICES AND SYSTEMS

59 Interpretation in Part VIII

In this Part—

“telecommunication” includes cellular telecommunication.

60 Telecommunication licensees to comply with licence and regulations

A telecommunication licensee shall provide his telecommunication service or operate his telecommunication system in accordance with his licence and regulations made in terms of section ninety-nine.

61 Interconnection between telecommunication licensees

(1) Subject to this section, if a telecommunication licensee is requested to do so by another such licensee, he shall forthwith connect his telecommunication system to the other licensee’s telecommunication system in accordance with the terms and conditions of an agreement concluded between the licensees in terms of this section.

(2) An agreement for the interconnection of telecommunication systems in terms of subsection (1) shall—

(a) subject to subsection (5), be concluded within the period specified by the Authority or within such longer period as the Authority may permit; and

(b) be consistent with guidelines published in terms of subsection (3); and

(c) be subject to approval by the Authority.

(3) The Authority shall publish guidelines as to the form and content of agreements for the interconnection of telecommunication systems, and such guidelines may make provision for—

(a) the period within which the interconnection shall be completed; and

(b) the quality or standards of service to be provided by the interconnected systems; and

(c) the fees and charges payable for the interconnection; and

(d) any other matter which, in the Authority’s opinion, will facilitate the interconnection.

(4) Before concluding an agreement for the interconnection of telecommunication systems in terms of subsection (1), the parties shall lodge their proposed agreement with the Authority for its approval, which approval shall be given if the Authority is satisfied that the agreement will be consistent with the guidelines published in terms of subsection (3).

(5) If the Authority refuses to approve an agreement in terms of subsection (4), it shall notify the parties in writing of the reasons for its refusal and shall require the parties to re-negotiate the proposed agreement, within such period as the Authority may specify, to make it consistent with the guidelines published in terms of subsection (3).

(6) If, after a request for the interconnection of telecommunication systems has been made in terms of subsection (1)—

(a) the licensee to whom the request was made refuses to accede to the request; or

(b) the licensees concerned are unable, within the period referred to in paragraph (a) of subsection (2), to agree on the terms and conditions of an agreement for the interconnection of their telecommunication systems; the matter shall be referred to the Authority for its decision.

(7) Where a matter has been referred to the Authority in terms of subsection (6), the Authority shall conduct such investigation into the matter as it considers necessary and, after affording the parties an adequate opportunity to make representations, shall—

(a) where the matter concerns a refusal by a licensee to accede to a request for interconnection in terms of subsection (1)—

(i) direct the licensee concerned to accede to the request, subject to such terms, conditions or modifications as the Authority may specify, if the Authority is satisfied that the interconnection is technically feasible and will promote increased public use of telecommunication services or more efficient use of telecommunication services; or

(ii) permit the licensee concerned to reject the request, if the Authority is not satisfied as provided in subparagraph (i);

or

(b) where the matter concerns the terms and conditions of an agreement for the interconnection of telecommunication systems—

(i) suggest terms and conditions which the parties should or might incorporate in the agreement to resolve their dispute and direct them to resume negotiations towards reaching an agreement within such reasonable time as the Authority shall specify; and

(ii) if the parties fail to reach agreement within the period specified in terms of subparagraph (i), make its own decision as to what the disputed terms and conditions should be, and those terms and conditions shall bind the parties as if they had been included in an agreement in terms of this section:

Provided that any such terms and conditions shall be consistent with the guidelines published in terms of subsection (3).

62 Approval of telecommunication apparatus

(1) Where a telecommunication licence authorises the connection to any telecommunication system to which the licence relates of any telecommunication apparatus specified in the licence or of a description so specified, the apparatus shall be approved by the Authority before it is so connected.

(2) A person applying for approval in terms of this section shall comply with such requirements as the Authority may think appropriate.

(3) An approval in terms of this section may be granted^{3/4}

(a) so as to apply to any particular telecommunication apparatus or any class thereof, or for the purposes of a particular telecommunication system or any class thereof;

(b) absolutely or subject to such conditions as the Authority may specify.

(4) The Authority may, subject to subsections (5) and (6), cause a notice to be published in the Gazette establishing standards to which apparatus of a specified description shall conform if it is to be approved for connection to a telecommunication system of a specified description.

(5) Before establishing any standard in terms of subsection (4) the Authority shall, by notice in the Gazette^{3/4}

(a) state that it proposes to establish any standard for the purposes of this section;

(b) describe any standard it proposes to establish and its effect;

(c) invite any representations or objections in relation to its proposal to be made and lodged with it in writing within twenty-one days from the publication of the notice; and the Authority shall consider any representations or objections which are duly made and not withdrawn.

(6) In establishing any standard for the purposes of this section, the Authority shall have regard to international standards governing the compatibility and interoperability of telecommunication systems.

63 Special provisions relating to telecommunication licensees operating telecommunication systems

(1) In this section—

“appropriate successor company” means the successor company or, where more than one successor company is formed, the company licensed in terms of section one hundred and thirteen to provide the telecommunication services carried on by the Corporation immediately before the fixed date.

(2) Subject to this section and to such exceptions or conditions as the Authority may include in the relevant licence, the Authority may apply any of the provisions of the Third Schedule to a telecommunication licensee operating a telecommunication system:

Provided that the licensee concerned shall not be released from any duty attaching to or connected with any right or power so applied.

(3) The Authority shall not act in terms of subsection (2) unless it is satisfied, upon representations made by the licensee or proposed licensee concerned, that the operation of the telecommunication system concerned is not otherwise practicable.

(4) Without derogating from the generality of subsection (2), the exceptions and conditions there mentioned shall include such exceptions and conditions as appear to the Authority to be necessary or expedient for the purpose of securing^{3/4}

(a) that the physical environment is protected;

(b) that there is no greater damage to streets or interference with traffic than is reasonably necessary;

(c) that funds are available for meeting any liabilities which may arise from the exercise of any rights or powers applied in terms of subsection (2).

(5) Not later than fourteen days after the publication in terms of subsection (5) of section thirty-seven of the telecommunication licence of a licensee to whom any of the provisions of the Third Schedule have been applied in terms of subsection (1), any person having an interest in the matter may lodge an objection with the Authority in the form and manner prescribed against the application of any or all such provisions to the licensee concerned.

(6) On receiving an objection in terms of subsection (5) the Authority, after affording all the parties concerned a reasonable opportunity of making representations to it, either in person or in writing, may uphold the objection in whole or in part and amend the licence accordingly or dismiss the objection, and shall notify each party concerned in writing of its decision and of the reasons for it.

(7) Section ninety-six shall apply to any person who is aggrieved by any decision of the Authority made in terms of subsection (6).

(8) Subsections (5), (6) and (7) shall not apply to the application of any of the provisions of the Third Schedule to the appropriate successor company.

64 Use of certain conduits for telecommunication purposes

(1) In this section^{3/4}

“authority” includes a local authority and statutory body;

“conduit” includes a tunnel or subway;

“relevant conduit” means^{3/4}

(a) any conduit which, whether or not it is itself an electricity transmission line, is maintained by an electricity authority for the purpose of enclosing, surrounding or supporting such a line, including, where such a conduit is connected to any box, chamber or other structure (including a building) maintained by an electricity authority for purposes connected with the conveyance, transmission or distribution of electricity, that box, chamber or structure; or

(b) a water main or any other conduit maintained by a water authority for the purpose of conveying water from one place to another; or

(c) a public sewer.

(2) The functions of an authority with control of a relevant conduit shall include the power^{3/4}

(a) to carry out, or to authorise any person to carry out, any works in relation to that conduit for or in connection with the installation, maintenance, adjustment, repair or alteration of telecommunication apparatus; and

(b) to keep telecommunication apparatus installed in that conduit or to authorise any other person to keep telecommunication apparatus so installed; and

(c) to authorise any person to enter that conduit to inspect telecommunication apparatus kept installed there; and

(d) to enter into agreements on such terms (including terms as to the payments to be made to the authority) as it thinks fit, in connection with the doing of anything authorised by or under this section; and

(e) to carry on an ancillary business consisting in the making and carrying out of such agreements.

(3) Where any enactment expressly or impliedly imposes any limitation on the use to which a relevant conduit may be put, that limitation shall not have effect so as to prohibit the doing of anything authorised by or under this section.

(4) Where the doing by an authority with control of a public sewer of anything authorised by this section would, apart from this subsection, constitute a contravention of any obligation imposed (whether by virtue of any conveyance or agreement or otherwise) on the authority, the doing of that thing shall not constitute such a contravention to the extent that it consists in, or in authorising, the carrying out of works or inspections, or keeping of apparatus, wholly inside a public sewer.

(5) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), subsection (2) is without prejudice to the rights of any person with an interest in land on, under or over which a relevant conduit is situated.

65 Notice of construction of railways and electricity works and control of other works

(1) Any person who desires to construct or extend any railway or any works for the supply or transmission of electricity shall—

(a) give one month's notice in writing to the Authority of his intention to commence such construction or extension; and

(b) furnish the Authority with a plan of the proposed railway or works, together with the particulars showing the manner and position in which the railway or works are intended to be constructed or extended and carried on and such further information as the Authority may require:

Provided that this subsection shall not apply to the construction or extension of works or lines for the supply or transmission of electricity of a prescribed voltage.

(2) If it appears to the Authority that—

(a) the operation of or the equipment to be used in connection with a railway or works referred to in subsection (1) is likely to affect injuriously or interfere with the work or maintenance of a telecommunication line or the carrying on by a telecommunication licensee of a telecommunication service; or

(b) any telecommunication line is being affected injuriously or interfered with by the construction or operation of or the equipment used in connection with—

(i) a railway or work referred to in subsection (1); or

(ii) any railway works or other operations whatsoever;

the Authority shall notify in writing the person constructing or operating the railway or works of the action which that person is required to take in order to remedy or prevent the injury or interference.

(3) A person referred to in subsection (2) who, after receipt of a notice in terms of that subsection, proceeds with the construction or operation of the equipment concerned or continues to operate the railway or works without complying with the terms of that notice shall be liable for all loss and damage caused to any telecommunication licensee by his failure to comply with the terms of that notice.

PART IX

RADIOCOMMUNICATION SERVICES

66 Provision of facilities for radiocommunication

(1) In this section—

“building” includes a structure or erection of any kind, whether permanent or temporary, and any extension or alteration thereto.

(2) Any person who intends to install or construct a building more than thirty metres above ground level within a radius of two hundred metres of any installation or plant used in connection with a radiocommunication service operated by a cellular telecommunication licensee or telecommunication licensee, shall notify the licensee before carrying out such installation or construction.

(3) After receiving notification in terms of subsection (2), the licensee concerned may make arrangements with the person who gave the notification for the licensee to enter upon the building concerned at any reasonable time to provide such accommodation or other facilities in or around the building as may be necessary or proper for any installation or plant used in connection with the radiocommunication service to be laid, placed, constructed, erected or installed in, on or around the building.

(4) Where a building interrupts or interferes with a radiocommunication service operated by a licensee before the building was installed or constructed, the licensee may, at any reasonable time, enter upon the building to provide such accommodation or other facilities in or around the building as may be necessary or proper for any installation or plant used in connection with the radiocommunication service to be laid, placed, constructed, erected or installed in, on or around the building for the purposes of eliminating such interruption or interference.

67 Authority to approve sites of radio transmitting stations, allocate frequencies, etc.

(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Authority shall—

(a) approve the sites at which all radio transmitting stations, other than aircraft, mobile or ship stations, are to be established and at which all radio apparatus used in connection therewith is to be erected; and

(b) allocate the frequencies on which all radio transmitting stations and all apparatus referred to in paragraph (a) of the definition of “generating apparatus” in subsection (1) of section two shall be worked; and

(c) approve—

(i) the mode of transmission to be used in connection with all radio transmitting stations and the power to be radiated therefrom; and

(ii) the classes, types and standards of radio transmitting stations and radio apparatus to be used in connection with different classes of radiocommunication services; and

(iii) the classes, types and standards of radio receiving stations to be used in connection with diffusion services.

(2) In exercising the powers conferred upon it by paragraph (b) or subparagraph (i) of paragraph (c) of subsection (1), the Authority shall have regard to the International Telecommunication Constitution.

68 Approval of Authority required for establishment and working of radio transmitting stations, etc.

No person shall—

(a) establish a radio transmitting station which is not an aircraft, mobile or ship station or erect radio apparatus at a site which has not been approved by the Authority; or

(b) work a radio transmitting station or apparatus referred to in paragraph (a) of the definition of “generating apparatus” in subsection (1) of section two on a frequency which is not a frequency allocated to the radio transmitting station or apparatus by the Authority; or

(c) use in connection with a radio transmitting station a mode of transmission or cause power to be radiated therefrom which is not the mode of transmission or the radiated power approved for the radio transmitting station by the Authority; or

(d) establish, erect or work in connection with a radiocommunication service a radio transmitting station or radio apparatus which is not of a class, type or standard approved by the Authority for use in connection with that class of radiocommunication service; or

(e) establish, erect or work in connection with a diffusion service a radio receiving station which is not of a class, type or standard approved by the Authority; or

(f) modify or extend a radio transmitting station or radio apparatus used in connection with a radiocommunication service or a radio receiving station used in connection with a diffusion service, otherwise than in a manner approved by the Authority.

69 Disposal of certain radio transmitting stations or radio apparatus to be authorised

Except with the Authority's written permission no person, other than an authorised dealer, shall sell, give, supply or transfer to another person in any manner whatsoever ownership or possession of a radio transmitting station or radio apparatus necessary for the proper working of such a station, which is not also radio apparatus necessary for the proper working of a radio receiving station.

70 Certain dealers and repairers to be authorised

(1) No person shall—

(a) carry on the business of dealing in radio transmitting stations or radio apparatus necessary for the proper working of the same except in accordance with a certificate issued by the Authority authorising him to carry on business as a dealer; or

(b) carry on the business of repairing radio transmitting stations, other than broadcasting stations, except in accordance with a certificate issued by the Authority authorising him to carry on business as a repairer.

(2) Section forty-three shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to a certificate issued in terms of this section.

71 Certificates of competency required in respect of the working of certain radio stations

(1) No person shall work a radio station of a class or type prescribed except in accordance with a certificate of competency issued by the Authority.

(2) The Authority shall not issue a certificate of competency in terms of subsection (1) to a person who is not citizen of Zimbabwe without the authority in writing of the Minister.

(3) Section forty-three shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to a certificate issued in terms of this section.

PART X

UNIVERSAL SERVICE FUND

72 Interpretation in Part X

In this Part—

“appropriate successor company” means the successor company or, where more than one successor company is formed, the company licensed in terms of section one hundred and thirteen to provide the cellular telecommunication, postal or telecommunication services carried on by the Corporation immediately before the fixed date, as the case may be;

“community centre” means any school, railway station, police station and other location providing a service to the community;

“directory information service” means a service consisting in the provision by means of a telecommunication service of directory information for the purpose of facilitating the use of a telecommunication service;

“disabled person” means a person who is substantially and permanently handicapped by any physical or mental disability;

“Fund” means the Universal Service Fund established by section seventy-three;

“under-serviced area” means any area that is not, in the opinion of the Minister formed in consultation with the Authority, adequately provided with postal or telecommunication services.

73 Establishment and vesting of Universal Service Fund

(1) There is hereby established a fund to be known as the Universal Service Fund.

(2) Subject to this Part, the Fund shall be vested in the Authority as trustee.

74 Objects of Fund

The objects of the Fund shall be—

(a) the standardisation of postal and telecommunication services and the maintenance of high standards of quality in the provision of such services; and

(b) to make grants to local authorities or their appointed agents for the purpose of assisting needy persons to obtain access to postal and telecommunication services; and

(c) to finance or assist in financing the extension of postal and telecommunication services to under-serviced areas and community centres within or outside such areas; and

(d) to assist in the training of persons in the provision of postal or telecommunication services; and

(e) to promote or contribute towards research and development in the field of postal and telecommunication services; and

(f) to promote and contribute towards the expenses of the adaptation or facilitation of the use of telecommunication services for the benefit of disabled persons, including the provision without charge of directory information services appropriate to meet the needs of such persons; and

(g) to encourage and facilitate, for the benefit of Zimbabwe, the transfer of telecommunications technology from foreign providers of such technology; in accordance with an annual implementation plan prepared by the Authority in consultation with cellular telecommunication, postal and telecommunication licensees and the appropriate successor company.

75 Moneys of Fund

The Fund shall consist of—

(a) such moneys as may be raised by contributions imposed in terms of section seventy-six; and

(b) such moneys as may be payable to the Fund from moneys appropriated by Act of Parliament for the purpose of the Fund; and

(c) such moneys as may be appropriated from the funds of the Authority in terms of section twenty; and

(d) any other moneys to which the Fund may be lawfully entitled.

76 Contributions to Fund

(1) Every holder of a licence shall pay the prescribed annual contribution to the Fund.

(2) The dates on which contributions to the Fund become payable and the manner in which they shall be paid shall be as prescribed.

77 Holding of Fund

(1) All moneys received on behalf of the Fund shall be paid into a banking account and no money shall be withdrawn therefrom except by means of cheques signed by such persons as are authorised in that behalf by the Authority.

(2) Any part of the Fund not immediately required for the purposes of the Fund may be invested in such manner as the Minister may determine:

Provided that such moneys shall not be invested directly in the shares of, or other securities issued by, a licensee other than a private telecommunication licensee.

78 Financial year of Fund

The financial year of the Fund shall be the period of twelve months ending on the 31st December in each year.

79 Accounts and audit of Fund

(1) The Authority shall cause proper books of accounts of the Fund to be kept, together with adequate financial and other records in relation thereto, and, within three months after the end of the financial year to which the accounts relate, shall submit the accounts to the Comptroller and Auditor-General for audit in terms of subsection (2).

(2) The accounts of the Fund shall be audited by the Comptroller and Auditor-General, who shall have all the powers conferred upon him by section 9 of the Audit and Exchequer Act [Chapter 22:03] as though the assets of the Fund were public moneys or State property.

PART XI

OFFENCES

80 Forgery of stamps and money orders, etc.

Any person who, without due authority or lawful excuse—

(a) makes, alters or reproduces any postage stamp, date stamp, card, envelope, wrapper, cover, money order or postal order or any other warrant or order for the payment of money through a cellular telecommunication licensee, postal licensee or telecommunication licensee; or

(b) uses, issues, offers, exposes for sale, sells, deals in, sends by post or otherwise disposes of or has in his custody or possession any article knowing it to have been made, altered or reproduced in contravention of paragraph (a); or

(c) engraves or in any other way reproduces upon any plate or material whatever any stamp, mark, figure or device in imitation of or resembling any stamp, mark, figure or device used or made or by any postal licensee; or

(d) sells or otherwise disposes of, purchases, receives or has in his custody or possession any plate or material whatever that has been engraved or upon which any reproduction has been made in contravention of paragraph (c); or

(e) makes or has in his custody or possession any mould, frame or other instrument capable of being used to make a postage stamp; or

(f) sells or otherwise disposes of, or has in his custody or possession any paper provided or made for the purpose of being used for postage stamps or for any other purposes by any postal licensee before such paper has been issued for public use; or

(g) makes use of any stamp, die or plate engraved or made or paper made by any postal licensee; or

(h) sells or otherwise disposes of, purchases, receives or has in his custody or possession any paper or material whatever bearing any impression or mark of any such stamp, die or plate as is referred to in paragraph (g) or paper engraved or made by any postal licensee; or

(i) makes on any envelope, wrapper, card, form or paper any mark in imitation of or similar to or purporting to be any stamp or mark used by any postal licensee; or

(j) writes or reproduces in any other manner whatsoever upon any article any word, letter, device or mark that signifies or implies or is likely to signify or imply that such article has been or is entitled to be sent through the post; shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding level eleven or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding seven years or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

[amended by Act 22 of 2001, with effect from the 10th September, 2002]

81 Offences in relation to postage stamps and post marks

(1) Any person who—

- (a) with intent to defraud—
 - (i) removes any postage stamp from any article sent by post or any telegram or from any document used by any postal licensee; or
 - (ii) removes from any postage stamp that has previously been used any mark or impression that has been made thereon at any post office by any postal licensee; or
 - (iii) uses, utters or puts off any postage stamp that has previously been used; or
 - (iv) erases, cuts, scrapes, defaces, obliterates, adds to or alters any mark or impression upon any postal article, money order, postal order or other warrant, order, paper or material whatsoever provided, used or made by any postal licensee; or
 - (v) sends or causes to be sent by post any article that falsely purports to be exempt from postage in terms of this Act;

or

(b) sells any postage stamp from which any mark or impression put thereon at any post office by a postal licensee has been removed; shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding level six or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

[amended by Act 22 of 2001, with effect from the 10th September, 2002]

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the sender of a postal article to which a postage stamp is affixed shall be deemed, unless the contrary is proved, to have affixed that postage stamp to that postal article.

82 Offences in relation to mails or postal articles

(1) Any person authorised to receive or in any way handle any mail or postal article who—

- (a) wilfully detains, delays, misdelivers or omits to dispatch any mail or postal article; or
- (b) unlawfully communicates or divulges the contents of any postal article; or
- (c) while in charge of any mail or postal article—
 - (i) permits any unauthorised person to have access to such mail or postal article; or
 - (ii) wilfully delays the arrival of such mail or postal article at its proper destination;

or

(d) through negligence or misconduct, endangers the safety of any mail or postal article; or

(e) gives false information of an assault upon him or of theft or attempted theft from him at a time when he was in charge of mail or a postal article; or

(f) without due authority, collects, receives, removes, intercepts or delivers any postal article otherwise than in the ordinary course of his duties; or

(g) without due authority or otherwise than in the course of his duties, date-stamps or otherwise marks any letter, postcard, printed paper, newspaper, pattern, sample, parcel or other article so as to indicate that such article is in the course of transmission by post or has been received by a post office for transmission; shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding level six or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

[amended by Act 22 of 2001, with effect from the 10th September, 2002]

(2) Subject to subsection (3), any person who—

- (a) makes any false statement as to the contents of any postal article; or
- (b) wilfully detains or keeps any mail or postal article that ought to have been delivered to another person; or
- (c) by any false representation, induces any employee of a postal licensee to deliver to him or to any other person any postal article not addressed to or intended for him or such other person; shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding level six or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

[amended by Act 22 of 2001, with effect from the 10th September, 2002]

83 Theft of and tampering with mail

Any person who—

- (a) steals any mail; or
- (b) steals from any post office or from the custody or possession of any employee of a postal licensee or person conveying mail any postal article or any of the contents of a postal article; or
- (c) unlawfully destroys any postal article or any of the contents of a postal article; or
- (d) receives any mail or postal article or any of the contents of a postal article knowing it to have been stolen; or
- (e) stops any vehicle, train or vessel with intent to steal or unlawfully to search the mail; or
- (f) unlawfully opens or tampers with or secretes any postal article;

shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding level eleven or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding seven years or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

[amended by Act 22 of 2001, with effect from the 10th September, 2002]

84 Restricted and prohibited postal articles and transmission of dangerous substances

(1) Any person who sends by post—

- (a) any indecent or obscene article; or
- (b) any postal article having thereon, therein or on the cover thereof any thing, word, mark or design of an indecent, obscene, seditious, scurrilous, threatening or grossly offensive character; or
- (c) any postal article bearing a fictitious postage stamp or purporting to be prepaid with a postage stamp that has been previously used; or
- (d) correspondence dealing with a fraudulent or immoral business or undertaking;

shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding level six or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

[amended by Act 22 of 2001, with effect from the 10th September, 2002]

(2) Any person who, otherwise than as may be prescribed or under any law, sends by post—

- (a) any drug to which Part II, IV or VI of the Dangerous Drugs Act [Chapter 15:02] applies; or
- (b) any medicine which is specified in a statutory instrument in terms of subsection (1) of section 41 of the Medicines and Allied Substances Control Act [Chapter 15:03]; or
- (c) any substance which is declared to be a Group 1 hazardous substance in terms of subsection (1) of section 15 of the Hazardous Substances and Articles Act [Chapter 15:05]; or
- (d) any sharp instrument which is not adequately protected; or
- (e) any noxious living creature; or
- (f) any creature, article or thing whatsoever that is likely to injure postal articles or an employee of a postal licensee;

shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding level eleven or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding seven years or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

[amended by Act 22 of 2001, with effect from the 10th September, 2002]

(3) Subject to subsection (4), any person who—

- (a) sends in or with any postal article; or
- (b) puts into or against any post office;

any fire, match or light or any explosive, inflammable, dangerous, noxious or deleterious substance or fluid shall be guilty of an offence and liable to imprisonment for a period not exceeding seven years:

Provided that, in the case of a person who sends in or with any postal article any device, substance or fluid which is designed to cause injury to any person, he shall be liable to imprisonment for a period not exceeding twenty years.

(4) Subsection (3) shall not apply to any noxious or deleterious substance or fluid sent in the interests of public health in accordance with such conditions as are prescribed, or provided under any law.

(5) Subsections (1), (2) and (3) shall apply in respect of any act which constitutes an offence in terms of the said sections and is committed outside Zimbabwe by a person who sends the postal article concerned to an address within Zimbabwe.

85 Offence of unauthorised notice as to reception of letters, etc.

Any person who, not being a postal licensee or without being authorised by the Authority places or maintains in or on any house, wall, door, window, box, pillar or other place—

- (a) the words “Post Office” or “Post and Telegraph Office”; or
- (b) the words “Letter Box” accompanied with a word, letter or mark that signifies or implies or is likely to signify or imply that it is a post box; or
- (c) any word or letter that signifies or implies or is likely to signify or imply that any house or place is a post office or that any box is a post box;

shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding level five or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

[amended by Act 22 of 2001, with effect from the 10th September, 2002]

86 Trespass in or upon post offices or telephone exchanges

(1) Any person, other than an employee of the licensee concerned, who—

- (a) without the permission of the licensee who controls the premises, or of an employee of the licensee with authority to give such permission, enters—
 - (i) any part of a post office that is not open to the public; or
 - (ii) any premises on which there is a telephone exchange worked by a telecommunication licensee;

or

- (b) behaves in a disorderly manner—
 - (i) in a post office; or
 - (ii) in any premises on which there is a telephone exchange worked by a telecommunication licensee;

or

- (c) wilfully obstructs, hinders or delays any employee of a licensee in the execution of his duty;
- shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding level five or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

[amended by Act 22 of 2001, with effect from the 10th September, 2002]

(2) Any person contravening paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (1) who, on being required so to do by a person employed by the licensee concerned, fails to leave the post office or telephone exchange immediately may be removed by an employee of the licensee, and any police officer shall, on being so requested by such an employee, remove or assist in removing any such person.

87 False entries relating to mail and fraudulent use of official mark

(1) Any employee of a postal licensee who is required to keep a record relating to mail and who fails to keep such record or makes a false entry in such record or erases or alters any entry in such record shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding level five or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

[amended by Act 22 of 2001, with effect from the 10th September, 2002]

(2) Any employee of a postal licensee who, with intent to defraud, puts any incorrect official mark on a postal article shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding level six or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

[amended by Act 22 of 2001, with effect from the 10th September, 2002]

88 Offensive or false telephone messages

Any person who—

(a) sends by telephone any message that is grossly offensive or is of an indecent, obscene or threatening character; or

(b) sends by telephone any message that he knows to be false for the purpose of causing annoyance, inconvenience or needless anxiety to any other person; or shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding level five or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

(c) makes any telephone call or series or combination of telephone calls without reasonable cause for the purpose of causing annoyance, inconvenience or needless anxiety;

[amended by Act 22 of 2001, with effect from the 10th September, 2002]

89 Wilful damage to or interference with telecommunication line

(1) Any person who—

(a) wilfully destroys, injures or removes any telecommunication line belonging to or used by a telecommunication licensee; or

(b) wilfully disturbs, obstructs or impedes in any way the free use or working of any telecommunication line belonging to or used by a telecommunication licensee; or

(c) without the consent of the licensee concerned, affixes or attaches any wire conductor or any other thing to any telecommunication line belonging to or used by a telecommunication licensee; or

(d) interferes with or hinders the construction, alteration, restoration, maintenance or examination of any telecommunication line by a telecommunication licensee; or

(e) without lawful excuse, inserts into a community service or other telephone apparatus for the purpose of making a call or otherwise any object other than a coin which is lawful currency in Zimbabwe or any object in substitution for any means of payment permitted by the licensee providing the apparatus in question; shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding level six or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

[amended by Act 22 of 2001, with effect from the 10th September, 2002]

(2) Any person who sees any other person committing or attempting to commit an offence in terms of subsection (1) may, without warrant, arrest that other person.

(3) A person who arrests another person in terms of subsection (2) shall forthwith notify that other person of the cause of the arrest.

(4) A person arrested in terms of subsection (2) shall as soon as possible be brought to a police station or charge office and there, subject to the provisions of the Criminal Procedure and Evidence Act [Chapter 9:07] relating to the release of an arrested person on bail, be detained until a warrant is obtained for his further detention upon a charge or until he is released by reason that no charge is preferred against him.

(5) No person arrested in terms of subsection (2) shall be detained for longer than forty-eight hours unless a warrant for his further detention is obtained.

90 False declarations

Any person who, in any declaration required to be made under this Act, makes any statement which he knows to be false or does not have reasonable grounds to believe to be true shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding level six or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

[amended by Act 22 of 2001, with effect from the 10th September, 2002]

91 Offences by employees and other persons

(1) Any employee of a telecommunication licensee or a cellular telecommunication licensee who—

(a) makes use for his own purposes of knowledge he may acquire of the contents of a communication; or

(b) wilfully mistimes, intercepts or prevents the transmission of a communication; or

(c) wilfully or negligently omits to transmit or impedes or delays the transmission of a communication; shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding level seven or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

[amended by Act 22 of 2001, with effect from the 10th September, 2002]

(2) Any person who—

(a) fails or refuses to register as a dealer in or repairer of radio transmitting stations when required to do so in terms of this Act; or

(b) fails or refuses to furnish a return or to supply information in the manner and in the time prescribed or furnishes a false or incomplete return or supplies false or incomplete information; or

(c) wilfully delays or obstructs an inspector or police officer in the exercise of the powers or duties conferred or imposed upon him by or under this Act; or

(d) on being required to do so, fails or refuses to produce to an inspector or a police officer a licence, certificate or authority issued in terms of this Act or a book, record or document relating to radio transmitting stations which is in his possession or under his control; or

(e) fails or refuses, without reasonable cause, to give information to an inspector or a police officer when required to do so in terms of section ninety-five or gives false or incomplete information; or

(f) fails to comply with the requirement contained in a notice served on him in terms of subsection (3) of section ninety-five or with a requirement made by an inspector or police officer in terms of subsection (7) of that section; or

(g) without the permission of the licensee concerned or a person having authority to grant such permission, enters any part of any premises on which there is a radio station worked by a cellular telecommunication licensee or a telecommunication licensee and which is not open to members of the public; or

(h) behaves in a disorderly manner in any premises on which there is a radio station worked by a cellular telecommunication licensee or a telecommunication licensee; or

(i) wilfully destroys, injures or removes a radio station or radio apparatus of a cellular telecommunication licensee or a telecommunication licensee; or

(j) wilfully interferes with, hinders or impedes in any way the operating of a radiocommunication service or the free use or working of a radio station or radio apparatus of the licensee concerned; or

(k) contravenes subsection (4) of section forty-four, section sixty-eight, section sixty-nine, subsection (1) of section seventy, subsection (1) of section seventy-one or subparagraph (1) or (2) of paragraph 10 of the Third Schedule;

shall be guilty of an offence and liable—

(i) for a contravention of paragraph (i) or (j), to a fine not exceeding level six or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year or to both such fine and such imprisonment;

[amended by Act 22 of 2001, with effect from the 10th September, 2002]

(ii) for a contravention of subsection (4) of section forty-four, section sixty-eight, section sixty-nine, subsection (1) of section seventy, subsection (1) of section seventy-one or subparagraph (1) of paragraph 10 of the Third Schedule, to a fine not exceeding level five or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or to both such fine and such imprisonment;

[amended by Act 22 of 2001, with effect from the 10th September, 2002]

(iii) for an offence not specified in subparagraph (i) or (ii), to a fine not exceeding level four or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

[amended by Act 22 of 2001, with effect from the 10th September, 2002]

(3) A person contravening paragraph (g) or (h) of subsection (2) who fails to leave the premises concerned immediately on being required to do so by an employee of the licensee concerned may be removed by such employee, and a police officer shall, on being requested to do so by such employee, remove or assist in the removal of the person.

(4) A person who sees another person contravening or attempting to contravene paragraph (i) or (j) of subsection (2) may, without warrant, arrest that other person.

(5) A person who arrests another person in terms of subsection (4) shall forthwith notify that other person of the cause of the arrest.

(6) A person arrested in terms of subsection (4) shall as soon as possible be brought to a police station or charge office and there, subject to the provisions of the Criminal Procedure and Evidence Act [Chapter 9:07] relating to the release of arrested persons on bail, be detained until a warrant is obtained for his further detention upon a charge or until he is released by reason that no charge is preferred against him.

(7) No person arrested in terms of subsection (4) shall be detained for longer than forty-eight hours unless a warrant for his further detention is obtained.

(8) On the conviction of a person for an offence of contravening subsection (1) of section thirty-three, subsection (1) of section seventy or subsection (1) of section seventy-one, the court convicting the accused may, on the application of the prosecutor and in addition to any penalty which it may impose, cancel a radio station licence, certificate or authority issued to the accused in terms of Part VI or IX and prohibit the issue to him, for such period as the court may specify, of such a licence, certificate or authority.

92 Sufficiency of allegations in indictment

In any indictment, summons or charge relating to any offence committed in respect of—

(a) any—

(i) mail or telegram or any property or moneys belonging to or used by a licensee; or

(ii) money order, postal order or other document used for the purpose of remitting, paying, collecting or depositing money through or with a postal licensee or a telecommunication licensee; it shall be sufficient to allege that any such mail, telegram, property, moneys, money order, postal order or other document belongs to or is or was in the lawful possession of the licensee;

(b) anything done or committed with a fraudulent intent relating to or concerning—

(i) a cellular telecommunication licensee or telecommunication licensee or an employee of such a licensee; or

(ii) any mail, telegram, property, moneys, money order, postal order or other document referred to in paragraph (a);

it shall be sufficient to allege that such thing was done with intent to defraud the licensee concerned.

93 Authority required for institution of certain criminal proceedings

Where any person is brought before a court on a charge of—

- (a) committing an offence in terms of this Act; or
- (b) attempting to commit or inciting another person or conspiring with another person to commit an offence in terms of this Act; or
- (c) being an accessory after the fact to the commission of an offence in terms of this Act; in respect of which offence the only penalty provided is imprisonment without the option of a fine, no further proceedings in respect thereof shall be taken against him without the authority of the Attorney-General, except such as the court may think necessary by remand to secure the due appearance of the person charged.

PART XII

GENERAL

94 Emergency and universal service obligations of certain licensees

(1) In this section^{3/4}

“community service telephone”, means any fixed-line, cellular or satellite telephone that is made available to the general public;

“emergency” means any event or circumstance resulting from a major accident or natural disaster;

“emergency organisation” means, in respect of any locality, the police and any fire, ambulance or other emergency service.

(2) A cellular telecommunication licensee, postal licensee and telecommunication licensee shall provide such facilities as will enable a person to communicate with an emergency organisation free of charge in the event of an emergency occurring within any area serviced by it.

(3) A cellular telecommunication licensee and telecommunication licensee shall endeavour to ensure that their telecommunication apparatus is compatible with peripheral devices commonly used by disabled persons.

(4) Until an implementation plan covering the area and services concerned is put into effect, a cellular telecommunication licensee, postal licensee and telecommunication licensee shall provide such postal services and community service telephones, as the case may be, in such under-serviced areas and community centres within and outside such areas as the Authority, with the approval of the Minister, shall specify in the licence issued to the licensee.

(5) The Authority, with the approval of the Minister, may specify a tariff for the use of community service telephones in the under-serviced areas and community centres referred to in subsection (4).

95 Inspections

(1) The Authority may appoint persons employed by it to be inspectors for the purposes of this Act and shall furnish each person so appointed with a certificate signed by or on behalf of the Director-General stating that he has been appointed as an inspector.

(2) An inspector or a police officer may require a person whom he has reasonable cause to suspect is a person required in terms of this Act to possess a licence, certificate or authority to produce his licence, certificate or authority, as the case may be.

(3) If a person referred to in subsection (2)—

- (a) is unable to produce his licence, certificate or authority on demand; or
- (b) cannot be located at his usual or last-known place of abode or business;

the inspector or police officer concerned may serve on the person a notice in the prescribed form requiring that person to produce that notice and his licence, certificate or authority to the police officer in charge of a police station within a period of seven days from the date of service of that notice.

(4) A police officer to whom a notice and a licence, certificate or authority have been produced in terms of subsection (3) shall forthwith—

(a) issue to the person who produced the notice and licence, certificate or authority a receipt in the prescribed form; and

(b) notify the inspector or police officer who served the notice that the notice and the licence, certificate or authority have been produced.

(5) If a person who has been served with a notice in terms of subsection (2)—

(a) fails to comply with the requirement contained in that notice, he shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, not to be the holder of the licence, certificate or authority, as the case may be, referred to in the notice;

(b) is subsequently prosecuted for failing to comply with the requirement contained in that notice, he shall be presumed, unless the contrary is proved, not to have produced that notice and his licence, certificate or authority, as the case may be, in compliance with the notice.

(6) Subject to subsection (9), an inspector or a police officer may at all reasonable times enter premises—

(a) of a licensee; or

(b) in or on which a dealer or an authorised repairer carries on business;

or

(c) which are owned or occupied by a person whom he has reasonable cause to suspect—

(i) is working a radio station or has a radio station in his possession or under his control in contravention of this Act; or

(ii) is working a radio transmitting station or apparatus for operating a diffusion service or has a radio transmitting station or apparatus for operating a diffusion service in his possession or under his control in contravention of the Broadcasting Act [Chapter 12:01];

(iii) is providing any service or operating any system for which a licence other than a listener's licence issued in terms of section 31 of the Broadcasting Act [Chapter 12:01] is required;

or

(d) on which he has reasonable cause to suspect is established, constructed or installed a radio station, radio apparatus or generating apparatus which is causing harmful interference; or

(e) which are owned or occupied by a person whom he has reasonable cause to suspect is in possession of a receiver as defined in the Broadcasting Act [Chapter 12:01]; or

(f) on which he has reasonable cause to suspect an offence against this Act has been committed; and shall have power to make such examination, inspection and inquiry and do such things as may appear to him necessary for ascertaining whether compliance has been made with this Act.

(7) Subject to subsection (9), all books, records, accounts and documents required to be kept by a dealer or an authorised repairer in terms of this Act shall be open to inspection at all reasonable times by an inspector or by a police officer.

(8) Subject to subsection (9), an inspector may inspect at all reasonable times a radio station, radio or other apparatus or premises worked or used by or in the possession or under the control of a licensee, dealer or authorised repairer.

(9) The powers of entry and inspection conferred by this section shall not be exercised^{3/4}

(a) in a case where the entry and inspection is for the purpose of ascertaining compliance with the requirement to hold a listener's licence issued in terms of section 31 of the Broadcasting Act [Chapter 12:01] or with the terms of such a licence, except with the consent of the person in charge of the premises concerned or in accordance with a search warrant issued in terms of section 50 of the Criminal Procedure and Evidence Act [Chapter 9:07];

(b) in a case other than one referred to in paragraph (a), except with the consent of the person in charge of the premises concerned, unless there are reasonable grounds for believing that it is necessary to exercise them for the prevention, investigation or detection of an offence in terms of this Act or for the obtaining of evidence relating to such an offence.

(10) An inspector or police officer may, in the exercise of the powers conferred upon him by this section, seize—

(a) a radio station which he has reasonable cause to suspect is being worked by or is in the possession or under the control of a person in contravention of this Act; or

(b) a radio transmitting station or apparatus for operating a diffusion service or broadcasting service which he has reasonable cause to suspect is being worked by or is in the possession or under the control of a person in contravention of this Act or the Broadcasting Act [Chapter 12:01]; or

(c) a book, record or document which he has reasonable cause to suspect will afford evidence of the commission of an offence against this Act, or, as the case may be, the Broadcasting Act [Chapter 12:01] relating to the matters referred to in subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (c) of subsection (6); and may retain it for so long as may be necessary for the purpose of any examination, investigation, trial or inquiry.

(11) An inspector may, in the exercise of the powers conferred upon him by this section, order a person referred to in subsection (8) to cease using, pending inquiry by the Authority, a radio station or radio or other apparatus which, in his opinion, is causing harmful interference or is being worked otherwise than in accordance with this Act, the Broadcasting Act [Chapter 12:01], or the International Telecommunication Constitution or, as the case may be, the terms and conditions of his licence.

(12) An inspector shall, on demand by any person affected by the exercise of the powers conferred upon him by this section, exhibit the certificate issued to him in terms of subsection (1).

96 Appeals

(1) Subject to this section, any person who is aggrieved by—

(a) a decision of the Authority not to issue a licence or certificate; or

(b) any term or condition of a licence issued to him, or a refusal by the Authority to specify a term or condition in a licence; or

(c) a refusal by the Authority to renew a licence or certificate; or

(d) any amendment of a licence or a refusal by the Authority to amend a licence; or

(e) the suspension or cancellation of a licence; or

(f) the grant or refusal by the Authority to grant any approval or authority in terms of this Act; or

(g) the outcome of any mediation by the Authority of a dispute between licensees; or

(h) such decision of the Authority as may be prescribed; may, within twenty-eight days after being notified of the decision or action of the Authority concerned, appeal in writing to the Minister, submitting with his appeal such fee as may be prescribed:

Provided that such appeal shall not suspend the operation of any licence or certificate issued by the Authority.

(2) For the purpose of determining an appeal noted in terms of subsection (1), the Minister may require the Authority to furnish him with the reasons for the decision or action that is the subject of the appeal and a copy of any evidence upon which the reasons are based.

(3) The Minister, after due and expeditious inquiry, may make such order on any appeal noted in terms of subsection (1) as he considers just.

(4) An appeal shall lie to the Administrative Court against any order of the Minister in terms of subsection (3).

(5) An appeal in terms of subsection (4) shall be made in the form and manner and within the period prescribed in rules of court.

(6) For the purpose of determining an appeal in terms of subsection (4) that relates to any cellular telecommunication, private telecommunication or telecommunication service or system, the President of the Administrative Court shall be assisted by two assessors having ability or experience in the field of telecommunications law or technology.

(7) On an appeal in terms of subsection (4), the Administrative Court may confirm, vary or set aside the decision or action appealed against and may make such order, whether as to costs or otherwise, as the court thinks just.

97 Evidence in proceedings for recovery of fees due

In any legal proceedings for the recovery of any sum payable under this Act in respect of a postal article—

(a) the official stamp or mark thereon denoting the sum due shall be prima facie evidence that such sum is due in respect of the postal article;

(b) the production of the postal article having thereon a post office stamp or mark denoting that delivery of the postal article has been refused or that the person to whom it is addressed is dead or could not be found shall be prima facie evidence of such fact;

(c) the person from whom the postal article purports to have come shall be deemed to be the sender thereof, unless the contrary is proved.

98 Interception of communications

(1) A postal or telecommunication licensee or employee of such licensee in charge of a telegraph office shall detain any telegram—

(a) which he suspects of containing anything that will afford evidence of the commission of a criminal offence or which he suspects of being sent in order to further the concealment of the commission of a criminal offence; or

(b) which he is requested by a commissioned police officer to detain on the ground that that police officer suspects it of containing anything that will afford evidence of the commission of a criminal offence or that he suspects it of being sent in order to further the concealment of the commission of a criminal offence;

and, if so authorised by the Attorney-General, that licensee or employee in charge shall cause the telegram to be handed over to such person as may be specified by the Attorney-General:

Provided that where, in the opinion of that licensee or employee in charge, by reason of the possibility of injury to any person or property, urgency or other good cause, it is necessary that the telegram be delivered to a police officer as soon as is possible, the employee in charge shall cause the telegram to be handed over to a police officer and shall forthwith inform the Attorney-General in writing thereof.

(2) If, in the opinion of the President, it is necessary in the interests of national security or the maintenance of law and order, he may give a direction that—

(a) any postal article or class of postal articles or any telegram or class of telegrams shall be intercepted or detained and shall be delivered to an employee of the State specified in the direction to be disposed of in such manner as the President may direct; or

(b) any communication or class of communications transmitted by means of a cellular telecommunication or telecommunication service shall be intercepted or monitored in a manner specified in the direction; or

(c) any cellular telecommunication or telecommunication service established, maintained or worked by cellular telecommunication or telecommunication licensee or any class of such service shall be suspended or that such service shall be suspended in respect of a person named in the direction.

(3) Section one hundred and three shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to a direction given in terms of subsection (2).

99 Regulatory powers of Minister

(1) In this section^{3/4}

“appropriate successor company” means the successor company or, where more than one successor company is formed, the company licensed in terms of section one hundred and thirteen to operate the cellular telecommunication, postal or telecommunication services carried on by the Corporation immediately before the fixed date, as the case may be;

“telecommunication” includes cellular telecommunication.

(2) The Minister may, after consultation with the Authority, make regulations prescribing all matters which by this Act are required or permitted to be prescribed or which, in the opinion of the Minister, are necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.

(3) Regulations made in terms of subsection (2) may provide for—

(a) all matters relating to the management of post offices and the provision or operation of postal and telecommunication services or systems;

(b) the supply, sale and use of postage stamps, and in so doing provide for—

(i) the classes of postal articles in respect of which postage stamps shall be used for the payment of postage or other sums payable under a postal tariff approved in terms of section one hundred;

(ii) the conditions subject to which postage stamps, including perforated or defaced postage stamps, may be accepted or refused in payment of postage or any other sum;

(iii) the regulation of and the measures to be taken in connection with the supply, sale and custody of postage stamps;

(iv) the persons by whom, and the conditions subject to which, postage stamps may be sold;

(v) the duties and remuneration of persons authorised to sell postage stamps;

(vi) the conditions of sale of international reply coupons;

(c) the installation of letter boxes or receptacles by members of the public for the purpose of the delivery to them of postal articles and the disposal of postal articles addressed to members of the public who fail to install in the prescribed manner letter boxes or receptacles of a type prescribed;

(d) the registration of postal articles, and in so doing provide for—

(i) the classes of postal articles that may be registered;

(ii) the maximum amount for which a postal article may be registered;

(iii) the amount payable as compensation for the loss of a registered postal article or its contents;

(e) the insurance of postal articles, and in so doing provide for—

(i) the classes of postal articles that may be insured;

(ii) the maximum amount for which a postal article may be insured;

(iii) the amount payable as compensation for the loss of an insured postal article or its contents;

(f) a money order service and in so doing provide for—

(i) the maximum amount for which money orders may be issued;

(ii) the period during which money orders shall remain current;

(g) a postal order service, and in so doing provide for the manner in which and the conditions subject to which postal orders may be issued, paid and cancelled;

(h) the establishment, maintenance, working and conduct of telecommunication services or systems, and in so doing—

(i) provide in connection with a telegraph service for—

A. the order of precedence of messages sent by telegraph service and the method of disposal of unclaimed and undelivered telegrams;

B. the measures to be taken to prevent the improper interception or disclosure of messages sent by telegraph service;

C. the period for which and the conditions subject to which telegrams and documents relating to telegrams that are in the custody of telegraph offices shall be preserved;

(ii) provide in connection with telephone and telex services for—

A. the conditions subject to which persons may use or avail themselves of telephone and telex services and facilities connected therewith;

B. the supply, installation, maintenance and repair of such apparatus and equipment as may be necessary for the purposes of affording persons the use of telephone and telex services and facilities connected therewith and, if the nature of the apparatus or equipment so requires, for the working of the apparatus or equipment by a licensee;

C. the conditions subject to which apparatus and equipment referred to in subparagraph B shall be supplied, installed, worked, whether by a licensee or otherwise, maintained and repaired;

D. the deposits and charges to be paid in connection with the supply, installation, working by a licensee, maintenance and repair of apparatus and equipment referred to in subparagraph B and generally in connection with the use of telephone and telex services and facilities connected therewith;

E. the forfeiture of deposits referred to in subparagraph D and the payment of sums to meet losses in income occasioned by the default of a person to whom apparatus or equipment referred to in subparagraph B is supplied or on whose behalf or request it is installed and to meet the costs of work done for the purpose of installation and like costs when apparatus or equipment supplied to or installed on behalf of or at the request of a person is removed before the expiration of a prescribed period or, as the case may be, is not supplied or installed owing to the default of the person;

F. the varying, exclusion or substitution, with the agreement of a person to whom a telephone or a telex service or facilities connected therewith are afforded or by whom such a service or facilities are used, of any provision prescribing a condition or relating to a matter referred to in subparagraphs A to E in respect of the supply to him or the installation, maintenance, working, repair or use of apparatus or equipment by him or on his behalf or at his request;

(i) the protection from interference or injury by works and lines for the supply of electricity of telecommunication systems established, maintained or worked by a licensee and by persons authorised in terms of this Act to establish, maintain or work telecommunication systems, and in so doing provide for the varying, exclusion or substitution, with the agreement of a person by whom such works or lines are established or operated, of any regulations providing for the protection of such telecommunication systems from interference or injury which may be applicable to the person;

(j) the giving of such access to buildings and the furnishing of such places, facilities and fittings in buildings by the owners of buildings as may be necessary for the purpose of installing, maintaining and repairing apparatus and equipment used or to be used in connection with telecommunication systems within the building;

(k) such matters as the Minister may consider appropriate or necessary to give force and effect, within Zimbabwe, to the provisions of the International Telecommunication Constitution and the Constitution of the Universal Postal Union;

(l) the classification of radio stations, other than broadcasting stations and radio stations used solely in connection with broadcasting and diffusion services, and in so doing amend the First Schedule or vary the definition of a radio station specified in the First Schedule and prescribe the nature of the radiocommunication services to be carried on therefrom;

(m) the inspection and testing by employees of broadcasting stations, licensed radio stations and radio stations and radio and other apparatus used in connection with broadcasting services or systems and for the method of installation, working and maintenance thereof;

(n) the establishment, maintenance, protection, working and conduct of all or any radiocommunication service established, maintained or carried on by a licensee, whether in conjunction with a telecommunication service or system or otherwise;

(o) the prohibition, restriction or control, by licence or otherwise, of the importation, purchase and sale of any apparatus capable of causing harmful interference;

(p) ensuring that—

(i) the use of generating apparatus or power lines does not cause harmful interference and in so doing prescribe the conditions to be observed with respect to—

A. the maximum intensity of electromagnetic energy of specified frequencies which may be radiated in any direction from generating apparatus or power lines when in use;

B. the electromagnetic energy of specified frequencies which may be injected by generating apparatus into the power lines by means of which power is supplied to the generating apparatus;

(ii) the use, in connection with a broadcasting or diffusion service or otherwise of radio stations or radio or other apparatus that does not injure or interfere with radiocommunication or telecommunication services established, maintained or carried on by a licensee or injure or interfere with radio stations or radio or other apparatus, equipment, circuits, instruments, wires and the like of a licensee, and in so doing authorise the Authority to order the modification of radio stations or the removal or replacement of radio or other apparatus;

(q) the registration of dealers in and repairers of radio transmitting stations and the information to be supplied to the Authority in connection with applications for registration;

(r) the keeping of books, records and documents, the furnishing of returns and the supply of information relating to dealings in and the repair of radio transmitting stations by dealers and authorised repairers;

(s) the qualifications in respect of age, term of service, skill, character and otherwise required by applicants for certificates of competency to work prescribed classes and types of radio stations;

(t) the holding of examinations to determine the proficiency of applicants for certificates of competency to work prescribed classes and types of radio stations;

(u) the issue of certificates of competency referred to in paragraph (t) to persons with the qualifications prescribed in terms of that paragraph;

(v) the fees to be paid—

(i) by applicants in connection with examinations referred to in paragraph (t); and

(ii) on the issue of certificates of competency to work prescribed classes and types of radio stations;

(w) the form and manner in which applications for licences, certificates and authorities are to be made and the information to be supplied in connection therewith;

(x) the form of licences, certificates and authorities, the terms and conditions to be contained in licences, certificates and authorities and the periods for which licences, certificates and authorities shall remain in force;

(y) the terms and conditions subject to which licences, certificates and authorities shall be issued;

(z) the cancellation, suspension and amendment of licences, certificates and authorities and the surrender or delivery to the Authority of licences, certificates and authorities for those purposes;

(aa) the circumstances in which and the conditions, including the payment of a fee, subject to which copies of licences, certificates and authorities may be obtained;

(bb) the notification to the Authority by persons to whom licences, certificates and authorities are issued of changes in their places of residence or business;

(cc) the notification to the Authority of changes in the places, aircraft, ships or vehicles at or in which radio stations in respect of which licences are issued, are established, installed or worked;

(dd) the proper exercise by the Authority of the powers of control of and supervision over radiocommunication services conferred upon it by this Act and of the other powers, functions and duties conferred or imposed upon it by this Act;

(ee) the procedures to be followed by the Authority, the Board or a committee of the Board for mediating disputes between licensees;

(ff) in relation to the provision of reserved services or articles^{3/4}

(i) the rates of postage payable on reserved postal articles;

(ii) the redirection of reserved postal articles and the transmission by post of postal articles so redirected free of charge or subject to a prescribed charge;

(iii) the charges to be paid for registration of reserved postal articles;

(iv) the charges to be paid for insurance of reserved postal articles;

(v) the rates of commission or the charges to be charged on and in respect of reserved money orders;

(vi) the rates of commission to be charged on reserved postal orders;

(vii) the rates at which and the conditions and restrictions subject to which^{3/4}

A. messages shall be transmitted by a reserved telegraph service;

B. messages transmitted by a reserved telegraph service shall be delivered;

(viii) the charges for searching for telegrams or documents relating to telegrams that are in the custody of telegraph officers employed by a reserved telegraph service;

(ix) the charges with respect to reserved agency services;

(x) the charges with respect to any service reserved in terms of subsection (4) of section one hundred and six;

(4) Subject to subsection (5), before making regulations in terms of paragraph (ff) of subsection (3), the Minister shall consult the Minister responsible for finance:

Provided that the Minister shall not be required to consult the Minister responsible for finance in the case of any regulations the effect of which is solely—

(a) to alter any prices, rates or charges in order to conform with changes made by countries outside Zimbabwe; or

(b) to fix charges and costs in connection with the supply, installation, working, maintenance or repair or any work done for the purposes of the installation of apparatus or equipment supplied, installed, worked, maintained or repaired by the appropriate successor company.

(5) Where the appropriate successor company proposes to increase any tariff for the provision of any reserved agency, postal or telecommunication service, and the Minister gives no written indication to the appropriate successor company of his intention to implement a specified alternative to the proposed increase within thirty days after the appropriate successor company first notified him in writing of the proposal, such increase shall be deemed to have been approved and shall take effect not earlier than the date on which the appropriate successor company publishes a notice of the increase in the Gazette:

Provided that the approval of the Minister shall not be required in the case of any tariff the effect of which is solely to alter the rates of postage in order to conform with changes to postal rates made by countries outside Zimbabwe.

(6) Regulations made in terms of subsection (2) may provide for the imposition of penalties not exceeding five thousand dollars or, in default of payment, imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months for contraventions of the regulations.

(7) Nothing in this section shall be construed as conferring any right on a person to be supplied with or to be afforded the use of any telecommunication service or facilities connected therewith or apparatus or equipment necessary for that purpose.

100 Approval of tariffs by Authority

(1) At the time of applying for the issue or renewal of his licence, a cellular telecommunication licensee, postal licensee or telecommunication licensee shall submit for the approval of the Authority written particulars of his proposed tariff at the commencement of the licensing period.

(2) If a cellular telecommunication licensee, postal licensee or telecommunication licensee proposes to amend or replace the tariff that was approved at the time when his licence was issued or renewed, he shall give notice to the Authority within such period and in such form and manner as the Authority may require or as may be prescribed.

(3) The Authority shall, within fourteen days of the receipt of the proposal, respond in writing confirming whether or not a proposal submitted in terms of subsection (2) is approved, and where the Authority has not so responded within such period, the proposal shall be deemed to have been approved by the Authority.

(4) The Authority shall not unreasonably refuse to approve a proposal submitted in terms of subsection (1) or (2).

(5) No amended or substituted tariff shall come into operation before the expiry of seven days following its approval by the Authority or the expiry of twenty-one days following the submission of a proposal in terms of subsection (2) to which no response has been received.

(6) A licensee to whom this section applies shall publish his tariff by^{3/4}

(a) making it available for inspection at his principal places of business during normal business hours; and

(b) promptly sending the relevant parts of it at the request of any consumer of his services.

101 Recovery of fees and contributions

(1) On the conviction of a person for an offence in terms of section thirty-one, thirty-two, thirty-three, thirty-four or thirty-five, the court convicting the accused may, on the application of the prosecutor and in addition to any penalty which it may impose, give summary judgment in favour of the Authority for the amount of the appropriate licence fee.

(2) A judgment given by a court in terms of subsection (1) shall have the same force and effect and may be executed in the same manner as if the judgment had been given in a civil action instituted in the court.

(3) The Authority may, by action in a competent court, recover the amount of a licence fee or contribution payable in terms of this Act.

102 Proceedings on failure of Authority to comply with Act or direction

(1) If at any time it appears to the Minister that the Authority has failed to comply with this Act or with a direction given to it in terms of section twenty-five or twenty-six, he may, by notice in writing, require the Board to make good the default within a specified period.

(2) If an act or thing required to be done in terms of this Act is omitted to be done or is not done in the manner or within the time so required, the Minister may order all such steps to be taken as in his opinion are necessary or desirable to rectify such act or thing, and the said act or thing when done in terms of the said order shall be of the same force and validity as if originally done in accordance with the appropriate provisions of this Act.

(3) Any expenses incurred by the Minister in the exercise of his powers in terms of subsection (2) shall be defrayed from the funds of the Authority.

103 Directions to licensees in the interests of national security

(1) The President may, after consultation with the Minister and the licensee concerned, give that licensee such directions of a general character as appear to the President to be requisite or expedient in the interests of national security or relations with the government of a country or territory outside Zimbabwe.

(2) If it appears to the President to be requisite or expedient to do so in the interests of national security or relations with the government of a country or territory outside Zimbabwe, he may, after consultation with the Minister and the licensee concerned, give to that licensee a direction requiring him to do, or not to do, a particular thing specified in the direction.

(3) A licensee shall give effect to any direction given to him in terms of this section notwithstanding any other duty imposed on him by or under this Act.

(4) The President shall, at the earliest opportunity, publish in the Gazette every direction given under this section, unless he is of the opinion that such publication is against the interests of national security or relations with the government of a country or territory outside Zimbabwe, or the commercial interests of any person.

(5) A person shall not disclose, or be required by virtue of any enactment or otherwise to disclose, anything done by virtue of this section if the President has notified him that the President is of the opinion that disclosure of that thing is against the interests of national security or relations with the government of a country or territory outside Zimbabwe, or the commercial interests of some other person.

(6) The President may make ex gratia payments to licensees for the purpose of defraying or contributing towards any losses they may sustain by reason of compliance with any direction given in terms of this section.

(7) Any licensee who refuses to comply with a direction given in terms of this section shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding level ten or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

[amended by Act 22 of 2001, with effect from the 10th September, 2002]

104 Disclosure of confidential information and use of information acquired by inspectors, etc., for personal gain

(1) If an inspector or member or employee of the Authority in the course of his duties as such acquires information relating to the financial affairs of any person, or to any commercial secret, he shall not for personal gain make use of such information, nor disclose it to any other person except^{3/4}

(a) for the purpose of legal proceedings under this Act or any other law; and

(b) to the extent that it may be necessary to do so for the purpose of this Act or any other law, to another inspector or member or employee of the Authority.

(2) No inspector or member or employee of the Authority shall, for personal gain, make use of any information acquired by him in the course of his duties as such for a period of five years after the date on which he ceased to be an inspector, member or employee.

(3) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) shall be guilty of an offence and liable to the forfeiture of any proceeds accruing to him on account of the contravention and to a fine not exceeding level ten or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

[amended by Act 22 of 2001, with effect from the 10th September, 2002]

PART XIII

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS, AMENDMENTS, REPEALS AND SAVINGS

105 Interpretation in Part XIII

In this Part^{3/4}

“appropriate successor company” means the successor company or, where more than one successor company is formed, the successor company licensed in terms of section one hundred and thirteen to operate the cellular telecommunication, postal or telecommunication services carried on by the Corporation immediately before the fixed date, or any company formed to undertake the purchase, manufacture, maintenance and repair of equipment and apparatus used by any such company, as the case may be;

“securities”, in relation to the appropriate successor company, includes shares, debentures, bonds and other securities of the successor company, whether or not constituting a charge on the company’s assets;

“transfer date” means the date fixed by the Minister in terms of subsection (1) of section one hundred and eight or, where two or more such dates are so fixed, the first such date.

106 Formation of successor companies and exclusive reservation of certain postal and telecommunication services to the Corporation and the appropriate successor company

(1) Subject to this section, the Minister shall, not later than six months after the fixed date, take such steps as are necessary under the Companies Act [Chapter 24:03] to secure the formation of one or more companies limited by shares, which shall be the successor company or successor companies to the Corporation for the purposes of this Act.

(2) The provision of the following services shall be reserved exclusively to the Corporation with effect from the fixed date, and to the appropriate successor company with effect from the transfer date^{3/4}

(a) the conveyance of letters whose mass is less than five hundred grams, other than such letters as are conveyed by a commercial courier service:

Provided that the operator of a commercial courier service shall not charge less than the prescribed rate for the conveyance of such letters by the Corporation or the appropriate successor company;

and

(b) the issuance of money orders or postal orders for an amount in excess of or less than that prescribed by the Minister; and

(c) any prescribed agency service, being a service that was provided by the Corporation immediately before the fixed date on behalf of the State, the Post Office Savings Bank referred to in section 3 of the People’s Own Savings Bank Act [Chapter 24:22], and such other statutory body or Government department as may be prescribed.

(3) Any person other than the Corporation or the appropriate successor company who provides any service reserved to the Corporation or the appropriate successor company in terms of paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (2) shall be guilty of an offence and liable to the forfeiture of any proceeds accruing to him on account of the provision of the reserved service and to a fine not exceeding level ten or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

[amended by Act 22 of 2001, with effect from the 10th September, 2002]

(4) Until a telecommunication licence governing the service in question is issued to another person, there shall be deemed to be reserved to the Corporation or the appropriate successor company, as the case may be, such particular service comprised within a telecommunication service as may be prescribed.

107 Initial shareholding in successor company

(1) All the members of the appropriate successor company on its incorporation shall be persons nominated by the Minister, with the approval of the President, and shall hold their shares on behalf of the State.

(2) All the shares initially issued to members of the appropriate successor company on its incorporation shall be held by those members on behalf of the State.

108 Transfer of assets and liabilities of Corporation to successor company

(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Minister, in consultation with the Board of the Corporation, shall by written notice fix the date on which the assets and liabilities of the Corporation shall be transferred to the appropriate successor company:

Provided that the Minister may fix different dates for the transfer of different assets and liabilities.

(2) On the relevant transfer date, every asset and liability of the Corporation which the Minister has directed shall be transferred to the appropriate successor company shall vest in that company.

(3) All bonds, hypothecations, deeds, contracts, instruments, documents and working arrangements that subsisted immediately before the relevant transfer date and to which the Corporation was a party shall, on and after that date, be as fully effective and enforceable against or in favour of the appropriate successor company as if, instead of the Corporation, the appropriate successor company had been named therein.

(4) It shall not be necessary for the Registrar of Deeds to make any endorsement on title deeds or other documents or in his registers in respect of any immovable property, right or obligation which passes to the appropriate successor company under this section, but the Registrar of Deeds, when so requested in writing by the successor company concerned in relation to any particular such property, right or obligation, shall cause the name of the successor company to be substituted, free of charge, for that of the Corporation on the appropriate title deed or other document or in the appropriate register.

(5) Any licence, permit or authority held by the Corporation under any enactment immediately before the relevant transfer date shall continue in force on and after that date as if it had been issued or granted to the appropriate successor company to which it was transferred, in terms of subsection (3), and may be amended, renewed or terminated accordingly.

(6) Any cause of action or proceeding which existed or was pending by or against the Corporation immediately before the relevant transfer date may be enforced or continued, as the case may be, on and after that date by or against the appropriate successor company in the same way that it might have been enforced or continued by or against the Corporation had this Act not been passed.

(7) Any guarantee or suretyship which was given or made by the Government or any other person in respect of any debt or obligation of the Corporation and which was effective immediately before the transfer date of the principal debt or obligation shall remain fully effective against the guarantor or surety on and after that date in relation to the repayment of the debt or the performance of the obligation, as the case may be, by the appropriate successor company to which the principal debt or obligation was transferred.

109 Issue of securities in consideration for transfer of assets

(1) In consideration for the transfer of the assets of the Corporation to the appropriate successor company by virtue of section one hundred and eight, the successor company, if so required by the Minister, shall issue such securities as the Minister may direct—

(a) to the Minister or a person nominated by the Minister; or

(b) to any person entitled to require the issue of the securities following their initial allotment to a person referred to in paragraph (a).

(2) Securities issued pursuant to a direction under subsection (1)—

(a) shall be issued or allotted at such times and on such terms and conditions as the Minister may direct; and

(b) shall be regarded as fully paid and treated for the purposes of the Companies Act [Chapter 24:03] as if they had been paid up by virtue of the payment to the appropriate successor company of their nominal value in cash.

(3) Any dividends or other moneys received by the Minister or by any other person on behalf of the State in right of or on the disposal of any security or right acquired by virtue of this section shall be paid into the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

(4) Stamp duty shall not be chargeable under the Stamp Duties Act [Chapter 23:09]—

(a) in respect of any security issued in compliance with a direction under subsection (1); or

(b) where any convertible securities were issued in compliance with a direction under subsection (1), in respect of the exercise of the conversion rights attached to any such security.

(5) The Minister shall not—

(a) give a direction under subsection (1) at a time when the appropriate successor company has ceased to be wholly owned by the State; or

(b) exercise any power conferred on him by this section, or dispose of any security issued or allotted to him pursuant to this section, or dispose of any right in such a security, except after consultation with the Minister responsible for finance.

110 Conversion of loans transferred to successor company

(1) In this section—

“transferred loan” means any moneys lent to the Corporation by the State, the liability to repay which vests in the appropriate successor company by virtue of subsection (2) of section one hundred and eight.

(2) The appropriate successor company, if directed to do so by the Minister, shall issue such securities as the Minister may require—

(a) to the Minister or a person nominated by the Minister; or

(b) to any person entitled to require the issue of the securities following their initial allotment to a person referred to in paragraph (a); up to an amount equal to the amount of any transferred loan.

(3) The issue of securities in terms of subsection (2) shall have the effect of extinguishing by novation the transferred loan in respect of which the securities were issued, up to the nominal value of the securities.

(4) Subsections (2) to (5) of section one hundred and eight shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to the issue of securities under this section and to the rights of holders of such securities.

111 Transfer of employees to successor company and Authority and conditions of service of transferred employees

(1) In this section^{3/4}

“excepted employee” means an employee of the Corporation referred to in subsection (3).

(2) With effect from the transfer date every person, other than an excepted employee, employed by the Corporation immediately before that date shall be transferred to the service of the appropriate successor company on terms not less favourable than those enjoyed by him immediately prior to his transfer.

(3) The Minister shall, as soon as practicable after the fixed date but not later than the transfer date, determine who among the employees of the Corporation employed in the department known as the “frequency management unit” are necessary for the performance of the functions of the Authority under this Act, and direct the Corporation or appropriate successor company, as the case may be, to notify each such employee in writing accordingly.

(4) Until such time as conditions of service are drawn up by the appropriate successor company and the Authority, as the case may be^{3/4}

(a) the terms and conditions of service applicable to employees of the Corporation shall continue to apply to every person transferred to the appropriate successor company as if every such person were still in the service of the Corporation; and

(b) every excepted employee shall, with effect from the transfer date, be transferred on terms not less favourable than those enjoyed by him immediately prior to his transfer.

112 Minister may give directions to Corporation

(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Posts and Telecommunications Corporation Act [Chapter 12:03], the Minister may give the Board of the Corporation directions in writing in order to ensure the proper transfer of the assets and liabilities of the Corporation to the appropriate successor company, and the Board shall without delay comply with every such direction.

(2) Without derogation from subsection (1), directions given under that subsection may provide for—

(a) the cessation of all or any of the functions of the Corporation and any person;

(b) the termination of any contract entered into between the Corporation and any person:

Provided that no such direction shall authorise the Corporation to commit an unlawful breach of any such contract;

(c) the production of any report and the provision of any information concerning the conduct of the Corporation or the Board of the Corporation or anything done by or on behalf of the Corporation or the Board of the Corporation;

(d) the custody of all philatelic archival materials produced by the Corporation.

113 Successor company deemed to be licensed

(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act the appropriate successor company or any subsidiary company formed by it for the purpose shall be deemed to be the holder of^{3/4}

(a) a postal licence issued in terms of this Act and authorising the company to operate the same postal services that it operated immediately before the fixed date;

(b) a telecommunication licence issued in terms of this Act and authorising the company to provide and operate the same telecommunication and radiocommunication services and systems that it provided and operated immediately before the fixed date;

(c) a cellular telecommunication licence issued in terms of this Act and authorising the company to provide and operate the same cellular telecommunication service and system operate that it provided and operated immediately before the fixed date;

(d) a radio station licence issued in terms of this Act authorising the company to have in its possession or under its control or work any radio station specified and defined in the First Schedule that it had in its possession or under its control or worked immediately before the fixed date.

(2) The Authority shall without delay cause the relevant licences to be issued to the companies referred to in subsection (1), and those licences may be renewed, amended, suspended or cancelled in all respects as if they had been issued in terms of Part VI.

114 Amendment of Cap. 12:01

The Broadcasting Act [Chapter 12:01] is amended—

(a) in section 2^{3/4}

(i) by the insertion of the following definition^{3/4}

““Authority” means the Postal and Telecommunications Authority established by section 3 of the Postal and Telecommunications Authority Act [Chapter 12:05];”

(ii) by the repeal of the definition of “Posts Corporation”;

(iii) in the definition of “receiver” by the deletion in paragraph (a) of “Radiocommunication Services Act [Chapter 12:04]” and the substitution of “Postal and Telecommunications Authority Act [Chapter 12:05]”;

(b) in paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of section 35³/₄

(i) by the deletion of “Posts Corporation”, where it occurs for the first and second times, and the substitution of “Authority”;

(ii) in subparagraphs (i), (ii) and (iii) by the deletion of “the Posts Corporation” and the substitution of “a person licensed by the Authority in terms of the Postal and Telecommunications Authority Act [Chapter 12:05],”;

(c) in section 14—

(i) by the deletion of “Postal and Telecommunication Services Act [Chapter 12:02] or the Radiocommunication Services Act [Chapter 12:04]” and the substitution of “Postal and Telecommunications Authority Act [Chapter 12:05],”;

(ii) in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) by the deletion of “Posts Corporation” and the substitution of “Authority”.

115 Repeal of Cap. 12:02, 12:03 and 12:04

When the President is satisfied that the assets and liabilities of the Corporation have been transferred to the appropriate successor company and that nothing remains to be done under this Part, he shall, by statutory instrument, repeal the Postal and Telecommunication Services Act [Chapter 12:02], the Posts and Telecommunications Corporation Act [Chapter 12:03] and the Radiocommunication Services Act [Chapter 12:04].

116 Savings and transitional provisions

(1) Any regulations, by-laws or notices which, immediately before the fixed date, were in force under the Postal and Telecommunication Services Act [Chapter 12:02] or the Radiocommunication Services Act [Chapter 12:04] shall continue in force, mutatis mutandis, as if they had been made by the Authority in terms of this Act, and may be amended or repealed accordingly.

(2) Any licence, certificate, authority or permit which was issued in terms of an Act referred to in subsection (1) and which had effect immediately before the fixed date shall continue to have effect, mutatis mutandis, for the remainder of its period of validity as if it had been issued under the appropriate provision of this Act.

(3) Any person providing or operating a private telecommunication service or system immediately before the fixed date shall be deemed to be a private telecommunication licensee for the purpose of providing or operating the same private telecommunication service or system for a period of six months from the fixed date or until the expiry of any permit authorising him to provide or operate the service or system, whichever is the longer period.

First Schedule (Sections 2, 33 and 99 (3)(l) and 113(1)(d))

CLASSIFICATION OF RADIO STATIONS

In this Schedule, “radio station” does not include a broadcasting station or a radio receiving station used solely in connection with a broadcasting or diffusion service.

Aeronautical station means a radio station used for the purpose of carrying on a radiocommunication service with and for the benefit of aircraft.

Aircraft station means a radio station continuously subject to human control which is installed in an aircraft.

Amateur station means a radio station worked by a person interested in the technique of radiocommunications solely with a personal aim and without pecuniary interest.

Base station means a radio station established on land and used for the purpose of carrying on a radiocommunication service with mobile stations.

Coast station means a radio station established on land and used for the purpose of carrying on a radiocommunication service with and for the benefit of ship stations.

Community repeater mobile radio-communication station means a radio station of special type with a base station in which the antenna system is strategically located on a high building, tower or some other elevation to receive a signal from a fixed, mobile or portable station for retransmission to other fixed, mobile or portable stations.

Fixed station means a radio station used for the purpose of carrying on a radiocommunication service between specified points.

Meteorological aids station means a radio station used for the purpose of transmitting special signals intended solely for meteorological and hydrological observations and exploration.

Mobile station means a radio station capable of use whilst in motion or during halts at unspecified points and includes those radio stations commonly known as “walkie-talkies”, but does not include an aircraft station or ship station.

Model control station means a radio station used for the purpose of controlling models.

Press station means a radio receiving station used for the purpose of receiving news broadcasts from recognized press agencies.

Private experimental station means a radio station utilizing Hertzian waves in experiments with a view to the development of the science and technique of radiocommunications, but does not include an amateur station.

Radiobeacon station means a radio station the emissions of which—

(a) are intended to enable a mobile station, aircraft station or ship station to determine its bearings or direction in relation to the radiobeacon station; or

(b) provide information solely as to the position or identity of the radiobeacon station.

Radio control station means a radio station used for the purpose of controlling mechanism or other apparatus which is not installed in a model.

Radio location station means a radio station used for the purposes of—

(a) determining the relative direction, position or motion of an object; or by means of the constant velocity or rectilinear propagation characteristics of Hertzian waves.

(b) the detection of an object;

Ship station means a radio station installed in a vessel which is not permanently moored.

Special service station means a radio receiving station used exclusively for the purposes of receiving time signals, notices to navigators, epidemiological and medical advice and like services of general utility.

Standard frequency station means a radio transmitting station used for the purpose of transmitting standard and specified frequencies of known high accuracy intended for general reception.

Second Schedule (Section 4 (2))

ANCILLARY POWERS OF AUTHORITY

1. To acquire by lease, purchase, or otherwise, immovable property and to construct buildings thereon.

2. To buy, take in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire movable property, including vehicles, necessary or convenient for the performance of its functions.

3. To maintain, alter and improve property acquired by it.

4. To mortgage or pledge any assets or part of any assets and, with the approval of the Minister, to sell, exchange, let, dispose of, turn to account or otherwise deal with any assets or part of any assets which are not required for the exercise of its functions for such consideration as the Authority may, with the approval of the Minister, determine.

5. To open bank and building society and post office accounts in the name of the Authority and to draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute and issue for the purposes of its functions, cheques, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, securities and other instruments.

6. To insure against losses, damages, risks and liabilities which it may incur.

7. To enter into contracts and suretyships or give guarantees in connection with the exercise of its functions and to modify or rescind such contracts or rescind suretyships or guarantees.

8. With the approval of the Minister, to enter into, renew, cancel or abandon arrangements with any government or authority, local or otherwise, that may seem conducive to the exercise of its functions or any of them and to obtain from such government or authority rights, privileges and concessions which the Authority thinks desirable to obtain and carry out, exercise and comply with such arrangements, rights, privileges and concessions.

9. With the approval of the Minister, to raise loans or borrow money in such amounts and for such purposes and under such conditions as may be approved by the Minister.

10. To employ, upon such terms and conditions as the Authority may think fit, such persons as may be necessary for conducting its affairs, and suspend or discharge any such persons.

11. Subject to section 39 of the Audit and Exchequer Act [Chapter 22:03], to pay such remuneration and allowances and grant such leave of absence and to make such gifts and pay bonuses and the like to its employees as the Authority thinks fit.

12. To provide pecuniary benefits for its employees on their retirement, resignation, discharge or other termination of service or in the event of their sickness or injury and for their dependants, and for that purpose to effect policies of insurance, establish pension or provident funds or make such other provision as may be necessary to secure for its employees and their dependants any or all of the pecuniary benefits to which this paragraph relates.

13. With the approval of the Minister, to purchase, take in exchange, hire and otherwise acquire land or dwellings for use or occupation by its employees.

14. To construct dwellings, outbuildings or improvements for use or occupation by its employees on land purchased, taken in exchange, hired or otherwise acquired by the Authority.

15. To sell or let dwellings and land for residential purposes to its employees.

16. With the approval of the Minister, to guarantee loans to its employees or their spouses for the purchase of dwellings or land for residential purposes, the construction of dwellings and the improvement of dwellings or land which are the property of its employees or their spouses.

17. To provide security in respect of loans guaranteed in terms paragraph 16 by the deposit of securities.

18. With the approval of the Minister, to make loans to any employee of the Authority—

(a) for the purpose of purchasing vehicles, tools or other equipment used by him in carrying out his duties; or

(b) not exceeding three months' salary or wages payable to him, for any purpose;

on such security as the Authority considers adequate.

19. To do anything for the purpose of improving the skill, knowledge or usefulness of its employees, and in that connection to provide or assist other persons in providing facilities for training, education and research and to pay for the aforesaid, where necessary.

20. To provide such services as the Authority considers could properly be provided by the Authority.

21. With the approval of the Minister, to provide financial assistance to any person, association, organisation or institution whose activities are such as to be, in the opinion of the Authority, of benefit to the Authority.

22. Generally, to do all such things as may be necessary, conducive or incidental to the exercise of the powers and the performance of the functions of the Authority under this Act or any other enactment.

Third Schedule (Section 63)

RIGHTS, POWERS AND DUTIES OF TELECOMMUNICATION LICENSEES OPERATING TELECOMMUNICATION SYSTEMS

Interpretation

1. In this Schedule^{3/4}

“licensee” means a telecommunication licensee referred to in subsection (1) of section sixty-three.

Compulsory acquisition of rights in or interests over land for telecommunication purposes

2. (1) Subject to subparagraph (3), a licensee may, with the approval of the Authority and the Minister responsible for lands and subject to such conditions as that Minister may impose, compulsorily acquire any servitude or other interest in or right over land required—

(a) for the purposes of constructing or maintaining a telecommunication line and the buildings and exchanges and other apparatus connected therewith; and

(b) for an access road to a site referred to in paragraph (a) or for the construction and use of such road; and

(c) for the erection of power lines and for the maintenance and inspection of such lines.

(2) The Authority and the Minister responsible for lands shall not grant approval in terms of subparagraph (1) except after consideration of the following reports, namely^{3/4}

(a) a report by the licensee concerned that—

(i) the licensee is unable to acquire the servitude, interest or right upon reasonable terms by agreement with the owner; and

(ii) it is necessary that the servitude, interest or right be acquired by the licensee for a purpose referred to in subparagraph (1);

and

(b) a report by the Ministry responsible for the environment made on behalf of the licensee by a person qualified to make such reports assessing the anticipated impact on the environment of any works to be undertaken for a purpose referred to in subparagraph (1), and recommending any measures to be taken to assess, prevent or minimize such impact.

(3) Parts III, V and VIII of the Land Acquisition Act [Chapter 20:10] shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to the exercise by a licensee of his powers in terms of subsection (1).

Use of buildings and structures to support telecommunication lines, etc.

3. (1) Subject to this paragraph, a licensee may, on one month’s written notice to the owner or occupier of the building or structure concerned, attach wires, stays or any other kind of support to any building or other structure for the purpose of facilitating or constructing a telecommunication line.

(2) If the owner or occupier of any land objects to the exercise of the powers referred to in subparagraph (1), he may lodge written notice of his objection and his reasons therefor with the licensee concerned and, on receipt of such objection, the licensee shall refer the matter to the Authority, whose decision shall be final:

Provided that an objection shall be lodged within one month of receipt of the notice given in terms of subparagraph (1).

(3) Before making any decision or order in terms of subparagraph (2), the Authority shall give to all parties concerned a reasonable opportunity of making representations, either in person or in writing.

(4) Before carrying out any work under, over or along any land reserved for railway purposes, other than maintenance and repair work, a licensee shall give notice in writing to the National Railways of Zimbabwe of the work he intends to carry out.

Entry upon land for telecommunication purposes

4. When, in accordance with this Schedule, a licensee has been permitted to occupy or use any land or has placed a telecommunication line in position, he shall be entitled to reasonable access to such land or line for the purpose of carrying on his operations on the land or of maintaining, removing, repairing or replacing the telecommunication line.

Removal of telecommunication lines

5. (1) If it is necessary to alter or remove a telecommunication line owing to any work or operations on the part of the State or a local authority or other person, the cost of the alteration or removal shall be borne by the State or the local authority or other person concerned.

(2) If a building is about to be erected on any land and any telecommunication line passing under or over the land will interfere with building operations, the licensee concerned shall, within one month of being required in writing to do so, undertake such alteration or deviation of the telecommunication line as may be necessary to remove the interference.

(3) If a licensee is satisfied that any alteration or deviation of a telecommunication line that is desired for any reason, other than that mentioned in subparagraph (2), is possible, necessary or expedient, the licensee shall, within one month of being required in writing to do so, undertake the alteration or deviation, and the cost of carrying out any such alteration or deviation shall be borne by the person at whose request it is made.

(4) If by reason of—

(a) any excavation, blasting, mining or quarrying operations; or

(b) deposits of mining debris or the making of drains, railways or other cuttings or any other operations; or

(c) fumes or effluent from any factory, power station or other such premises; or any telecommunication line is damaged or, in the opinion of the licensee who erected it, the safety or stability of any telecommunication line is endangered or likely to be adversely affected, the licensee may repair, deviate or alter the telecommunication line and the cost of such repair, deviation or alteration shall be borne by the person by whom or on whose behalf the operations referred to in paragraph (a) or (b) were conducted, the premises referred to in paragraph (c) were operated or the dam was constructed, as the case may be:

(d) the construction of any dam;

Provided that, where the alterations or deviations which are necessary or expedient are, in the opinion of the licensee, extensive, the licensee may charge the person concerned such proportion of the cost of the alteration or deviation as the licensee, with the consent of the Authority, considers fair or reasonable.

Erection of gates for access to telecommunication lines

6. (1) If a fence on any land, including State land, makes it impossible or inconvenient for a licensee to gain access to his telecommunication line, the licensee may, at his own expense, erect and maintain a gate in that fence.

(2) A licensee who has erected a gate in terms of subparagraph (1) shall provide a lock for the gate and supply a key for the lock to the owner or occupier of the land on which the gate is erected.

(3) Any person intending to erect a fence that would render it impossible or inconvenient for a licensee to obtain access to his telecommunication line shall give the licensee one month's notice in writing of his intention to erect the fence.

Trees obstructing telecommunication lines

7. (1) Trees or undergrowth which, in the opinion of a licensee, obstruct or interfere with or are likely to interfere with the working or maintenance of any telecommunication line shall, on fourteen days' notice by the licensee and to such extent as the licensee may consider necessary, be cut down or trimmed—

(a) by the authority responsible for the care and management of the land, road or street concerned, where the trees or undergrowth are growing on State land, other than State land which has been leased, or on Communal Land or on a road or street;

(b) by the owner or occupier of the land, concerned, in any other case.

(2) If the authority, owner or occupier referred to in subparagraph (1) objects to the exercise of the powers referred to in that subparagraph, he may lodge written notice of his objection and his reasons therefor with the licensee concerned and, on receipt of such objection, the licensee shall refer the matter to the Authority, whose decision shall be final:

Provided that an objection shall be lodged within fourteen days of receipt of the notice given in terms of subparagraph (1)

(3) Before making any decision or order in terms of subparagraph (2), the Authority shall give to all parties concerned a reasonable opportunity of making representations, either in person or in writing.

(4) The Authority shall uphold an objection made in terms of subparagraph (2) if it is shown to its satisfaction that the obstruction to or interference or likely interference with the telecommunication line in question can be avoided without cutting down or trimming any trees or undergrowth and without unreasonable extra cost to the licensee.

(5) The reasonable expenses incurred in cutting down or trimming trees or undergrowth in terms of subparagraph (1) shall be borne by the licensee concerned.

(6) Subject to this paragraph, if the authority, owner or occupier referred to in subsection (1) fails to comply with a notice given by the licensee in terms of that subparagraph, the licensee may enter upon the land, road or street, as the case may be, in question and cut down or trim the trees or undergrowth to the extent he considers necessary.

(7) Notwithstanding subparagraph (1), if the working of any telecommunication line is actually interfered with or endangered by any trees or undergrowth, the licensee concerned may remove the interference or danger without giving the notice required by subparagraph (1).

Laying of telecommunication lines under streets, etc.

8. (1) A licensee may construct and maintain a telecommunication line under any street, road or footpath, and may alter or remove any such telecommunication line:

Provided that before doing so the licensee shall give reasonable notice to the authority or person that owns or has the care and management of the street, road or footpath concerned.

(2) In the exercise of the powers conferred by subparagraph (1), the licensee may break or open up any street, road or footpath and alter the position thereunder of any pipe, other than a main sewer, main drain or gas main, and of any electric cable other than an electric main:

Provided that no alteration in the position of any such pipe or cable shall be made except under the supervision of a person appointed by the person to whom the pipe or cable belongs or by whom it is used, unless no such person is appointed or the person so appointed fails to supervise at the time specified in the notice for the commencement of the work or discontinues supervision during the work.

Powers to be exercised with care and compensation for damage

9. (1) In the exercise of the powers conferred by this Schedule, a licensee shall^{3/4}

(a) cause as little detriment and inconvenience and do as little damage as possible; and

(b) pay compensation to any person who suffers loss or deprivation of rights through the exercise of the powers conferred by this Schedule; and

(c) if so requested by the Authority, commission a report referred to in paragraph (b) of subparagraph (2) of paragraph 2 before exercising any powers conferred by paragraphs 3 to 8.

(2) Parts V and VIII of the Land Acquisition Act [Chapter 20:10] shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to the payment of compensation in terms of subparagraph (1):

Provided that any reference in Part VIII of that Act to the date of the publication of a preliminary notice in the Gazette shall be construed as a reference to the date of the exercise by the licensee concerned of the powers referred to in subparagraph (1).

(3) On completion of any work in connection with the construction, maintenance or repair of a telecommunication line in the exercise of the powers conferred by this Schedule, the licensee concerned shall promptly restore the surface of any street, road, footpath, land or railway affected thereby as nearly as reasonably possible to the same condition as that in which it was before the work was commenced.

(4) While any street, road or footpath is opened, broken up or otherwise obstructed by the exercise of the powers conferred by this Schedule, the licensee concerned shall cause the obstruction to be fenced or guarded and, during the night, lighted.

Height and depth of telecommunication lines

10. (1) Aerial telecommunication wires and cables shall be carried over land at such height from the surface of the ground as may be prescribed.

(2) An underground telecommunication line that is not carried in a pipe or duct shall be placed such distance below the surface of the ground as may be prescribed.

(3) If the owner or occupier of any land is obstructed in the use of the land because a telecommunication line is insufficiently high, the licensee concerned shall, subject to paragraphs 5 and 7, take such steps as may be necessary for the removal of the obstruction.

Acquisition of right or interest in Communal Land

11. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Schedule, no right over or interest in Communal Land shall be acquired, whether compulsorily or by agreement, otherwise than in accordance with the Communal Land Act [Chapter 20:04].

Licensee to authorise persons for purposes of Third Schedule

12. The licensee shall furnish every person authorised by him to exercise any of the powers conferred by this Schedule with a certificate signed by or on behalf of the licensee stating that the person has been so authorised, and such person shall produce such certificate at the request of any person affected by the exercise of the said powers.

Go To Top Page

NEXT CHAPTER